of the Institution were held in the Exhibition Hall last week. They consisted of awards of premiums, and other honors, to the pupils who had distinguised themselves in scholarship, music and handleraft.

In the Literary Department; the "Birch Premium" (a pin-type writing apparatus), was awarded to six pupils of highest standing in the senior classes, and a copy of the New Testament, in the raised print, to eight pupils of next highest standing. Awards of books were made to pupils in the junior classes, for good scholarship, and for success in music—and also, silver, and bronze medals, for skill in various kinds of handieraft.

The exercises were of a highly interesting character, and attended by a very large audience. The awards were made, in behalf of the managers, by Franklin Peale, Esq., President of the Institu-

The awards were made, in behalf of the managers, by Franklin Peale. Esq., President of the Institution. Efforts are being made to enlarge the Library for the Blind, by printing books in the laised letter; and, looking to the success of many of the pupils in acquiring a knowledge of the higher branches of Literature and Science, the subject of providing a classical and collected. subject of providing a classical and collegiate course of instruction is receiving favorable consideration.

THE COURTS.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce.—The July term of the Court commenced this morning. William Ellis, Esq., was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury. Judge Peirce urged the jury to prepare as speedily as possible the prison cases, in order that the Court could dispose of them at

In order that the Court could dispose of them at once. Reference was made to the fact that the prison now contains a large number of persons awaiting trial, and it was desirable that all these cases should be heard at an early day.

Excuses for petit jurors were heard, and after allowing several to depart, a large number of bills of indictment, charged with selling liquor without a license, were called. But, few of the defendants answered to their names, and finally all these cases were adjourned to Monday next.

There being no business ready the Court adjourned.
