CITY BULLETIN.

BURGLARIES.—At an early hour this morning the residence of Edward Siter, Esq., No. 34 North Nineteenth street, was entered through a window from the side yard, and robbed of male and female wearing apparel to the amount of $1,000.

On Saturday night last the residence of Mr. Jacoby, in Jefferson street, near Broad, was entered through a rear window, and robbed of various articles. The thieves had packed up a large amount of valuable silverware, but were alarmed, and made off with but a small portion of their plunder. The frequent occurrence of robberies in this section of our city is beginning to excite alarm among the residents, who complain bitterly of the negligence of the police officers.

COUNTRYMAN ROBBED.—An old gentleman, 70 years of age, a resident of Harrisburg, came to the city yesterday, and while looking around last evening, fell in with a comely looking colored woman, who enticed him to a house in the vicinity of Seventh and St. Mary streets. There the Harrisburger was relieved of $85 in money and his coat and hat. He afterwards recovered his clothing, but his money is a total loss. Jennie French, Elizabeth Dickson and Hester Haines were arrested upon the charge of having been concerned in the robbery. They were taken before Alderman Morrow and were committed to answer.

BOLD THEFT.—Last evening, about nine o'clock, a young German girl was passing along in the neighborhood of Fourth and Callowhill streets, when her purse, which was hanging upon her arm, was seized by a man named Robert Jones. He refused to give up the purse unless she accompanied him to a certain place, but she followed him about, from street to street, until she saw a policeman, and then had Jones arrested. The accused was taken before Alderman Toland, this morning, and was committed, in default of $800 bail, to answer.

SUPPOSED ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—A man named Pat. Smith, aged 50 years, was found by Officer Regnault, yesterday afternoon, lying upon the sidewalk at Seventeenth and Lombard streets, in a state of insensibility. He was taken to the Fifth District Police Station, and Dr. Hooper and other physicians were summoned. It was then ascertained that the man was suffering from a dose of laudanum, which it is supposed he had taken to destroy his life. The proper antidotes were given, and Smith was sent to the Almshouse, to which he had a ticket of admission.

AN ANNIVERSARY.—To-day is the anniversary of two important events in the history of the nation, and of Philadelphia. On the 9th of July, 1850, General Taylor, President of the United States, died, after a very brief and most mysterious illness. On the same day a great explosion and conflagration took place at Vine street wharf, which involved the loss of many lives, and the destruction of between three and four hundred buildings, with most of their contents. It was a day to be remembered.

DISTURBANCE ON SOUTH STREET.—This morning, about 7 o'clock, some of the employés of the clothing stores on South street, above Second, got into a war of words and created quite a commotion. The Second District Police were obliged to interfere, in order to prevent a serious disturbance. Lazarus Jacobs, Reuben Cohen, Reuben Jacobs and Nathan Myers, who seemed to be the most prominent in the wrangle, were arrested. After a hearing before Ald. Tittermary, they were held for breach of the peace.

REV. I. R. GATES'S MACAMOOSE.—This Indian remedy thoroughly purifies the blood and is efficacious in all cases of dyspepsia, liver complaint, chills and fever. It has been used by eminent public men, clergymen, officers of the army and navy, and business men of high standing, all of whom have testified to its efficacy as a safe and reliable medicine. It is prepared and sold wholesale and retail at the Macamoose depot, No. 813 Race street.

LARCENY OF A COW.—Henry Bilblow was arrested yesterday on a boat at Gray's Ferry, upon the charge of the larceny of a cow belonging to Daniel M. Jones. The animal was taken from the place of Mr. Jones, on the Darby road, below the Sorrel Horse tavern. It was driven to the droveyard, where it was offered for sale for $25. Bilblow was committed by Ald. Allen.

ANOTHER CASE.—Arrests for violating the Sunday liquor law are becoming very numerous. Henry Miller, the proprietor of a lager beer saloon and brewery at No. 136 Girard avenue, was arrested yesterday and taken before Alderman Shoemaker, upon the charge of having kept his establishment open and sold liquor on Sunday last. He was held in $500 bail for trial.

FOR GLOUCESTER.—The boats for Gloucester Point leave South street wharf every three-quarters of an hour during the day. Those who desire to get away from the heat of the city, and are unable to leave home for a lengthy period, will find the Point a cool and pleasant resort.

THE BULLETIN AT ATLANTIC CITY.—Persons who visit Atlantic City and desire to procure the BULLETIN can do so at the United States Hotel, where Mr. Jno. Trenwith's news-stand will always be found well supplied.

COMMENCEMENT.—The semi-annual commencement of the Central High School will take place to-morrow morning, at the Academy of Music.

A General Engagement in the Streets of Rome.

A letter from Rome in the Paris Univers gives an account of a sanguinary quarrel which took place in the Piazza of Frascati on the fête day of La Madonna del divino Amore. An inhabitant of the neighboring village of Grotta-Ferrata, on entering the square, was immediately recognized and addressed by a Frascatan named Bruni, who was on the spot with his two brothers, in these words, "You gave me a stab with your knife last year, and now I will give you as good;" on which he rushed in a transport of fury on the other, who naturally endeavored to defend himself. This scene took place in front of the principal café of the town, where a brigadier, two Zouaves, and a sergeant-major of that arm, named de Quelen, were taking refreshment; a captain of the Palatine guard, named Filipani, was also present, the two latter in plain clothes. These persons, in the interest of public order, interfered to separate the combatants, but were in their turn assailed by Bruni's two brothers, when a savage engagement took place, which ended in the death of two persons, namely, Bruni himself, shot by the sergeant in self-defence, and the man from Grotta-Ferrata, who had received six stabs in the breast. One of the surviving Frascatans was arrested just as he was taking refuge in the cathedral, with the corpse of his brother in his arms. Five more of the combatants were badly wounded, and among them the sergeant-major, but his life is not considered to be in danger.

CITY NOTICES.

THE INVENTIVE GENIUS OF YOUNG AMERICA is beautifully illustrated in that magnificent specimen of art, the American Combination and Button-hole Sewing Machine. The public are invited to call at the reception and salesrooms, corner of Eleventh and Chestnut streets, and examine the wonderful combination and the splendid work it produces.

PHILADELPHIA, Tuesday, July 9.

The money market continues easy, but as the crops will soon commence moving towards the seaboard, it is likely that there will soon be an increased demand and ample employment for it at something about present current rates. At the Stock Board there was less activity. Government Loans were held firmly, and all the better class of Bonds were steady, but the speculative shares generally were lower. The Coupon 6's, '81, closed at 109½@109¾; the Five-twenties, '62, at 111½@111¾; the Policy at 107¾; the '64's at 109; the '65's at 107½; the February Seven-thirties at 107¼, and the June and July do. at 106¾. Sales of State Loans, first series, were made at 101¾. City Loans were a fraction better, and closed at 95¾ for the old and 100 for the new issues. Reading Railroad declined ¼, and closed weak at 52¾. 130¾ was bid for Camden and Amboy Railroad; 52¾ for Pennsylvania Railroad; 30¾ for Little Schuylkill Railroad; 57⅝ for Lehigh Valley Railroad; 29¾ for Catawissa Railroad Preferred; 29¾ for Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, and 43 for Northern Central Railroad. In Canal stocks the only change was an advance of ¾ in Schuylkill Navigation Preferred. There was some movement in Hestonville at 12¾, but the other Passenger Railway shares were very dull.

Smith, Randolph & Co., Bankers, 16 South Third street, quote at 11 o'clock, as follows: Gold, 138¾; United States 1881 Bonds, 109¾@110; United States 5-20's, 1862, 111¾@111½; 5-20's, 1864, 109@109¾; 5-20's, 1865, 109¾@109¾; 5-20's, July, 1865, 107½@107¾; United States 10-40's, 102¾@102¾; United States 7-30's, 1st series, 107¾@107¾; 7-30's, 2d series, 107@107¾; 3d series, 107@107½; Compounds, December, 1864, 117.

Messrs. De Haven Brother, No. 40 South Third street, make the following quotations of the rates of exchange to-day, at 1 P.M: American Gold 138¾@138¾; Silver—Quarters and halves, 131¾@133; Compound Interest Notes—June, 1864, 19.40; July, 1864, 19; August, 1864, 18¾ Oct., 1864, 17½; Dec. 1864, 16¾; May, 1865, 16¼; August, 1865, 15¾; September, 1865; 15; October, 1865, 14¾.

Jay Cooke & Co. quote Government securities, &c., to-day, as follows: United States 6's, 1881, 109¾@110; Old 5-20 Bonds, 106¾@111¾; New 5-20 Bonds, 1864, 108¾@109¾; 5-20 Bonds, 1865, 109@109¾; 5-20 Bonds July, 1865, 107¾@108¾; 10-40 Bonds, 102¾@102¾; 7 3-10 August, 107¾@107¾; 7 3-10, June, 107@107¾; 7 3-10, July, 107@107¾; Gold (at 12 o'clock), 138¾@139.

Philadelphia Markets.

TUESDAY, July 9.—The Breadstuffs market is as dull as ever, and the sales are of a relatively unimportant character. The sales of Flour are confined to 7@800 barrels for the supply of the home consumers at $8@$8 50 ₰ barrel for Superfine, extras at $9@$9 50, Northwestern extra family at $9 75@11 25, Penna. and Ohio do. do. at $10@$12, and at higher figures for fancy lots. Rye Flour is selling in a small way at $7. There is no inquiry for Corn Meal.

The offerings of Wheat are very small and in the absence of sales we quote new Red at $2 25@2 50, old do. at $2 40@2 70, and California at $3. 500 bushels Penna. Rye sold at $1 52. Corn is scarce and looking up. Sales of 3,000 bushels high mixed Western and yellow at $1 12, but $1 14 is now asked for the latter, and 600 bushels Western white at $1 08. Oats are also advancing. Sales of 2,000 bushels Penna. at 85@88 cents—closing at the latter figure—a rise of 3 cents ₰ bushel.

Whisky—Prices are unchanged.
