FROM NEW YORK.

in certain circles for some time past that the As-sociated Press, and certain of its members in par-ticular, were aggrieved by the policy pursued by the Directors of the Atlantic Cable Company. Leading directly from a desire to harmonize the Directors of the Press difficulties, the managing members of the Press week at the rooms of the Union League Club. On that occasion, the leading host, Mr. Cyrus W. Field, saw fit to indulge in remarks that were so unquestionably insulting to his guests, and pointedly offensive to Mr. George Jones, the publisher of the Times, that he prompily resented it. Through the efforts of Mr. Peter Cooper and Mr. D. D. Fleid, the company separated without further annovance.

Subsequently Mr. Jones, desirous of affording Mr. Field an honorable retreat from the ques-tionable position he occupied, demanded an apology for the insulting epithet he had applied to a gentleman when sitting a guest at his board. This Mr. Field declined to give.

The sequel of the affair is thus reported in the Gazette.

In consequence of some difference between the managers of the Cable and the Press, the Direc-tors last week invited the leading members of the Direction a dimension of the Union Learne (1) tors last week invited the leading members of the Press to a dinner at the Union League Club. During a speech of Mr. Cyrus W. Field, he saw fit to make use of language which Mr. George Jones, publisher of the Times, deemed insulting, and subsequently to give Mr. Jones the lie. The timely interference of Peter Cooper and D. D. Field prevented a fraces at the time. The next day Mr. Jones demanded, through Mr. Raymond. an apology. which Mr. Field de-

The next day Mr. Jones demanded, through Mr. Raymond, an apology, which Mr. Field de-clined to give. Thus matters stood until this af-ternoon, when the parties met in front of the telegraph office. Mr. Jones instantly seized Mr. Field by the nose and pulled it, in the presence of a gathering crowd, and greatly to the inconve-nience of that sacred member. Before any one would interfore a purchasions pull satisfied the could interfere, a pugnacious pull satisfied the -ire of Mr. Jones, and the interested parties sepa-rated. Thus ends the second chapter.

Mormon emigrants will undoubtedly be a plen-tiful commodity in this port soon, for a steamer left Liverpool about two weeks since with four hundred of the believers, neophytes, acolytes, gaints, and wives, scaled or otherwise, on board. saints, and wives, scaled or otherwise, on borrd. It is rather curious that males among the pas-sengers were equal in number to the females. The Mormon doctrine would seem to avoid any such balance of sexes. They are chiefly young such balance of sexes. They are chiefy young people, ranging from eighteen to twenty-eight years of age, very few having reached the ma-turity of from thirty to fifty. According to con-tract, they have the forward part of the ship to themselves, and allow no Gentiles to encroach. Inemserves, and anow no centrics to encrotten. The greater part of the emigrants come from Wales, and the western counties of England; a few are Scotch, but there is not a single Irish person among them. A death from yellow fever is said to have occurred in Jersey City, the deceased being one of the crew of the steamer Corsica.

On Saturday last a young man of genteel ap-pearance and business manner called at the Long Island Bank, in Fulton street, and stated that he Island Bank, if Filler street, and states that 313,000, wished to make a deposit of about $13,000, at the same time producing two checks purport-ing to be drawn by L. B. Hilton. One was for $6,000 and the other for $5,500, and both were made payable at the Nassau National Bank, of Brooklyn. As the checks had the appearance of being genuine, the cashier of the bank took them on deposit. A few hours afterwards the young and appeared at the bank again and drew $50 on account. The checks were subsequently sent to the Nassan Bank, where they were pronounced as worthless. The police were informed of the fact, and kept a watch for the alleged forger. Yesterday he called at the bank and stated that he wished to draw out the amount he stated that he wished to draw out the amount he had deposited, as he had entered into a business transaction and was desirous of using the money immediately. Detective Denton, who was close at hand, took the accused into custody. He proved to be Lorenzo B. Shepard, son of a former District Attorney of the United States Court forthe Southern District of New York, and it is said was left in comfortable circumstances by his After his arrest he stated that he had visited a gambling saloon in Ann street, New York, where he had been fleeced out of the sumof $45, and being without money he resorted to this means to supply himself with funds. The accused was locked up to await examination.

CRIME.

Two Girls Murder Their Stepmother in Tennessee.

The Kingston East Tennessean gives the follow ng particulars of a horrible affair which occurred n the Sixth Civil District of Roane county, Tenn., known as the Paint Rock District:

"It appears that a Mrs. Hicks and her two step-Aughters, nared respectively Mary and Keziah, had for some time lived unpleasantly together, when the two daughters deter-mined to put her out of the way. Accordingly, with murderous intent, they forcibly conveyed their unfortunate victim to the smoke-house their unfortunate of the smoke-house near by, and commenced a series of tortures that even the veriest savage would have shrunk back from and grown hideous at-such was the enormity of their barbarity and wickedness. They first attempted to strangle their victim to death, but failing in that, they bethought them-selves of a more refined as well as expeditious mode of accomplishing their object, which was to pour melted lead into the car of their helpless victim. and then to make assurance doubly sure, these daughters struck the prostrate and dying woman several blows on the head with an axe. Suppos-ing the old lady dead or dying, they left their mother weltering in her blood and went to cliurch. Some of the neighbors soon after coming in found Mrs. Hicks, administered restoratives, and revived her-sufficiently to relate the above de-tailed facts. We learn that Mrs. Hicks has since died of her injuries, and that the murderers are still at large, having secreted themselves so as to prevent the officers of the law from arresting

THE COURTS.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce.—On Satur-day evening, during the reception of the German singers, two notorious pickpockets, belonging to the Fifth Ward, entered the crowd for the purmose of plying their trade. Failing to secure money, they seized two Panama hats from the strangers and then disappeared. On Sunday the fellows visited Smith's Island, and there engaged in a row, and were arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. While on the way to the station-house, they were met by one of the owners of the hats, who at once recognized his proberty, and subsequently identified it as well as the other, by marks on the inside. The result was other. that the parties were committed for the larceny, a true bill was found by the Grand Jury yester-day afternoon, and in the afternoon the men ere tried, convicted and sentenced each to one year in the County Prison.

The whole morning was consumed in the trial of an assault and battery case, in which a number of Germans were concerned. There was a disturbance in a lager beer saloon, and several parties were mixed up in the fight. Diamonda.—Some time ago one of our re-venue officers distinguished himself by issu-ing a circular in regard to the personal baging a circular in regard to the; personal bag-gage of passengers arriving from abroad. One of the finest points in this circular was that which specified that certain articles of luxury might be admitted free if their value was proportioned to the "station of the owner." This at once raised the query what social "station" entitled the wear-ing of diamonds and other jewelry. An article now before us enables us to form a judgment on this nerdeving subject. It contains a list of this perplexing subject. It contains a list of several owners of the more valuable diamonds and precious stones work in this country. Of these we find that a negro minstrel has a single diamond pin worth \$3,000. A "late negro min-strel" had pins and rings valued at \$25,000. A favorite dancer has \$4,000 invested in diamonds The wife of a negro minstrel is said to have the chormous amount of 370,000 in jewels. A circus clown has a single diamond valued at $\frac{2}{2},000$, and clown has a single diamond worth $\frac{2}{3}1,000$. A "retired" circus performer has a thousand dollars more than this invested in these vanities.

AFFAIR-FIRE ENGINE He ATTACKED, PISTOLS FIRED AND SEVERAL PARTIES INJURED .- This morning about half-past one o'clock, a serious disturbance occurred at Sixth and Fitzwater streets.
