Continued from Third Edition. Dr. Wm. Elmore sworn, and examined by Mr. Pierrepont. I reside in New York and know Dr. Bissell; I know what people say of him; his reputation for truth is bad. By Mr. Bradley-I have heard several speak of his character for truth; it is bad; I have heard more than a dozen persons so speak. George W. McMahon, sworn and examined by Mr. Pierrepont-I have lived in New York city: I liad a saloon with Dr. Bissell, at 1160 Broad way; I was in business with Bissell; he had a bad character for truth and veracity; I never heard a worse character.

No cross-examination. Francis Archambault sworn, and examined by Mr. Pierrepont-I reside in Montreal, and have lived there eight or nine years; I am a lawyer: know Mr. Nagle, who testified against Dr. McMil lan; I had a private conversation with Mr. Nagle; I do not wish to tell it, but if compelled I will do so; Mr. Nagle told me he was coming here as a witness and said he was bringing other witnesses, and'I understood he first got $1,000 or $2,000. and that not being sufficient he got more; I know St. Marie and studied law in the same office with him; his character was always good. No cross-examination.
