THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1867.

An Original Mayor.

Mayor Thomas of St. Louis is an original. It would not be easy to imagine that elegant demagogue Mayor Hoffman of New York, or our own genial Mayor McMichael, or the salary-renouncing Chief Magistrate of Boston, hauled up in Court to answer a charge of assault and battery on a woman; but St. Louis rejoices in a Chief Magistrate who is Louis rejoices in a conter mighting who is altogether an original in his conceptions of official dignity and respectability. It is true that he was elected as a Radical Republican, but as his present organ is the leading Copperhead paper of St. Louis, and his chief clerk is a reporter of that peculiarly loval journal, it is fair to suppose that His Honor has fallen, or is falling from grace, and among the first fruits of his demoralization, the public is entertained or scandalized, as the case may be, with his "assault and battery" case. The interesting particulars are told by one of the St. Louis papers as follows :

Yesterday morning, while on hospitable thoughts intent, Mayor Thomas sallied forth' for the purpose of visiting a negress. On presenting himself at the door, both of the chony females confronted the guardian of the public peace and refused him entrance. A short parley ensued, but Elizabeth, " fearey ensued, but Elizabeth, fear-that the sinister-looking man beparley ing fore the door was of unsound mind, refused to admit him. This so enraged the worthy functionary that he was constrained to raise his strong right arm and deal Elizabeth a tremendous blow over the cranium, which knocked her completely out of time and stretched her prostrate on the fluor. Not wishing to lose the advantage he had gained, and fearing that she might revive and give him a hard tussle, the Mayor continued to pour down a succession of heavy blows, and actually kicked and stamped her with his delicate boots.

After keeping up this amusement until he was tired, the Mayor turned and walked off, remarking as he did so that he was the Mayor of the City of St. Louis, and that "hereafter they must not attempt to oppose his progress. Elizabeth soon recovered from her fright and prostration, and not having the fear of city magistrates before her eyes, caused the arrest of Mr. Thomas for assault and battery, who was to be tried before Justice Keating Wednesday afternoon. The examination will be a thorough one; for if necessary, a congres-sional committee will be appointed to investigate the matter.

The Mayor appeared, told his own story, and was fined $3 and costs. He has a good deal of talent for telling his own story, which he presented in the following shape:

The Mayor had learned that there was an insane person living at a house on Clark avenue, and went in person to investigate. In-going into the house he had a few words with a colored woman, the daughter, as it proved, of the insane woman, and then passed out into the back yard and to the shanty where the latter was kept. The rest of the story the Mayor tells for himself:

"I entered the room and spoke to the old lady. I said, 'Aunty, how are you?' She said she was well. I said, 'How long have you been here?' and she answered, 'Three hundred years!' She was cooking, and I asked if she was making good coffee; she said no, she was making bread. She told me her name was Bannister. The old woman appeared at first in good humor for the purpose I came to question her. She became excited, however, when she saw the other woman standing outside, and said, 'Go away from here, you dirty nigger.' I turned around and saw one of these women standing outside, and finding the old lady was getting into a rage. I said; Will you shut that door and go away. She said she would not shut it, that this was her property, and that she had a right to be there, and that I had no business there at all, and that she would make me suffer for it. The old woman said nt canvage is to secure the election of their can-It canvass is to secure the election of their can-ing President Johnson to the United States Sen ite next year. They openly confess their inability to elect Etheridge, and hence have started inde-pendent radical candidates; fostered splits in that party, and put Brownlow's name on many of their own tickets.

CITY BULLETIN.

A WHARF GIVES WAY-LOSS OF LIFE .- About five o'clock yesterday afternoon a portion of the wharf of S. & W. Welsh, at the foot of Mead wharf of S. & W. Wesh, at the root number street, on the Delaware, gave way, and a number of persons and a large quantity of sugar were precipitated into the water. The wharf was 220 ieet long and between 30 and 40 in width. It was constructed with two sluiceways, thus forming what may be termed three piers. These piers were joined by bridging and then filled up with dirt. The portion which caved in begins at a distance of fifty feet from the edge of the water, and extends for a distance of about forty feet.

The bark Czarine, from the West Indies, ar-rived at this port on Monday night, with a cargo sugar and molasses, consigned to S. & W. Welsh. Yesterday the unloading of the bark was begun. and at the time of the accident from one hundred to one hundred and twenty hogsheads had been eposited.

At the time of the accident the following per. sons were on the wharf: Capt. Charles Merry-man, of the brig J. D. Lincolu; Charles W. Edman, of the orig J. D. Lincoln; Charles W. Ed-wards, a cooper, and employed on the wharf; John Cunningham, day watchman for Messrs. Welsh; a master cooper; William Porter, a jour-neyman cooper, and the mate of the bark Carrier Czarine

Captain Morriman, at the time of the occurrence, was in the act of going ou board of his ves-scl, and was partially up the plank, but the sinking of the bridge was so rapid that he was unable to save himself.

Edwards and Cunningham were close to each Edwards and Cunningham were close to each other. The former was engaged at his work, and Cunningham was sitting on a hogshead, smoking a pipe. Neither of them was seen after the bridge gave way. A few minutes before the sinking, a had was seen alongside of a hogshead of sugar. Porter was taken out of the water with no other injury than a dislocation of the shoulders. The mate of the Czarine, who had here in conversion with Captian Merriman. been in conversation with Captain Merriman, saved himself by jumping upon his vessel. Captain Merriman belonged to Maine. It is understood that he leaves a family. Edwards was about fifty years of age, and leaves a family re-siding at No. 309 Borden street. Cunningham also leaves a family. He resided at No. 122 Bread street.

None of the bodies have yet been recovered. Licutenant Edger and the Harbor Police were at work until two o'clock this morning, grappling them, but without success. It is supposed that the hogsheads of sugar and the wreck wharf all fell upon the unfortunate men. Work was resumed this morning, but up to last ac-counts none of the bodies had been recovered.

Several Government weighers, who had been weighing sugar over the sluice most of the day, had gone away just before the occurrence, and thus escaped.

The pier was examined quite recently, and was pronounced to be in a secure condition. The sugar damaged or destroyed is valued at $16,000. sugar damaged or destroyed is valued at $10,000. The damage to the 'pier will require an expendi-ture of several thousand dollars to repair. The opening is about sixty by forty feet, considerable of the bank on each side of the sluice having caved in. The disaster caused great excitement in the vicinity, and a crowd soon gathered. Those who had had relatives or friends working at the wharf, or upon neighboring landings, ruled to the scene of the catastrophe to ascertain their fate. As the intelligence of the accident spread, the crowd increased, and persons from a distance of a mile or two went down to the wharf. At one time there were several thousand people along Delaware avenue in the immediate vicinity of the wharf. This morning the excitement continued, but was not so great, and many persons congre-gated upon the remaining portions of the wharf to witness the operations of the workmen engaged in searching for the bodies of the unfortunate men who lost their lives by the disaster.

ASSACLTING A POLICEMAN. - Endrew Carney and Pat. Carney, who were about to go to the interior of the State to work in the coal mines, celcbrated the event yesterday by getting drunk. They declared that they would not leave the city until they had "licked a police officer," and at until they had "licked a ponce officer," and at Eleventh street and Columbia avenue they pitched upon Polleeman Kimble, of the Twelfth District. Kimble fared pretty, badly for "his entire suit of clothes was completely ruined. He was not hurt, however, and succeeded in arresting both men. The belligerent brothers were sent to prison by Alderman Fitch, in default of $1,500 ball. SHOOTING INTO A HOUSE .- George W. Jackson was before Alderman Mink this morning, upon the charge of riot, and assault and battery. It is alleged that about two weeks ago he and others went to Wolff's beer siloon, at Front and Moore streets, and raised a disturbance. After-Moore streets, and raised a disturbance. Alter-wards the party went into the street and stoned the house. Jackson went to his house in the neigh-borhood, got a gun, and fired through the door of the saloon. Fortunately there was nobody in the way of the ball. Jackson was not seen after the affair until last night, when he was captured by Officer Shear. He was committed for a further hearing. further hearing. ASSAULTING A MAN AND WIFF .- This morn ing, before Alderman Heins, Charles Bradley. Henry Rose and Joseph Vaughan were charged Henry Rose and Joseph Vaugnan were charged with assault and battery. It seems that they go drunk on Monday night, and went to Meyer's beer saloon, on Girard avenue, near Cherry street. They called for beer, but Mr. Meyer re-fused to give it to them. He was then knocked down. Mrs. Meyer interfered, and was assaulted so bad that she has been confined to her bed since. Bradley was held in $1,200, and the others in $1,000 bail, to answer at Court. Losr Boy .- A little boy about two years old was found at Third and Brown streets on Monday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and was taken to the Seventh District Station-house. There have been no calls for the child, and he is still in the charge of a policeman. He is nicely dressed in a jockey hat, with a feather in it, a light spotted dress and

STORE ROBBERY .--- The store of Thomas & Co., No. 1011 South Fourth street, was entered sometime during last night by forcing open the door. A cast iron box, containing papers and $30° in money, was broken info. The money was car-ried off, but the papers were left behind. The store of William H. Harrisen, at Haddonfield, N. J., was robbed of shoes valued at $50, last night.

A RADICAL NEWSPAPER has been started at Fayetteville, Arkansas, and the two numbers that have reached us look well. It is called the Fayetteville Radical, and its editor, Mr. Robert Kelley, writes well and soundly on public questions. He gives the following concerning the military in Fayetteville:

"Brevet Major Thos. Cummings, Capt. 19th Infantry, Commanding Post. First Lieut. John Infantry, Commanding Post. First Lieut. John named oncers of the United States Infantry, sta-tioned at this place, honored us with a call. Gratifying as it always is to us to form the ac-quaintance of honorable gentlemen of any posi-tion in life, yet we must be pardoned for saying that when we touch the hand of the noble officer or solding who has done or who is new direct inat when we touch the hand of the noble officer or soldier who has done or who is now doing service for the support of the government of the United States, the salutation imparts an unusual glow of delight, which seems to be prompted by the unbounded faith which we have in our matchless military power. Number of troops here at this time is one hundred and fifty."
S. Hammer, 19th Infantry, A. A. Q. M. Lieut.

CITY NOTICES.

THE PLAN of the Washington Library Company for the endowment of the Riverside Institute for Soldiers' and Sailors' orphans is one that has been laid out in strict accordance with the terms of the charter as granted for this purpose by the Legislature of Pennsylvania. This charter of the Washington Library Company legalizes the very acts that its members are now performing for this noble object. The plan, as most of our readers are aware, consists in selling stock at $1 per share, each share or shares being accompanied by a handsome, fine steel-plate engraving, worth fifty per cent. more than is actually paid for the stock. Besides this each share of stock secures one present in the grand distribution to come off in September next. Of these presents the aggregate value is $300,000, one of them being worth the enormous sum of $40,000, another worth $20,000, one worth $10,000, one worth $5,000, and two worth $2,500 each, several worth $1,000 each, and so on. This is simply the plan in brief as adopted and presented to the public. Those who would wish to inestigate for themselves, and to obtain all possible information, should visit the principal office, No. 1225 Chestnut street.

LET it be distinctly understood that the only perfect sewing machine is that manufactured by the American Buttonhole Overscaming Sewing Machine Company of Philadelphia.
