to Elmira? The presention say he was there in ald of the scheme, but the Court would not allow it to be shown why Surratt was there, as it was not shown that it had any connection with the confegiracy. Why, then, was Surratt taken to Elmira if there was no connection at that place with the conspiracy? At this point, 12.15, the Court took a recess for half an hour. Re-assembling, Mr. Merrick resumed and said the thought he had shown that the testimony of Surratt's presence here was not to be relied upon, and that from its infamous character it solide the whole case for the prosecution. He thought he had also demonstrated that it was a physical im-possibility for Surratt to have got here.
