Suspicion of Lanceny. Carl Switzer was before Ald. Godbon last evening upon suspicion of larceny. He was a boarder at a house at Front and Race streets, and was given a room which had been occupied by one of the Pittsburgh singers during the late Sängerfest. The Pittsburgher, upon going home, left his trunk in the room. Yesterday a noise was heard in the room, upon examination it was found that the trunk had been forced open and rifled of its contents. Switzer, who was in the apartment at the time was arrested. He was held in $800 bail.

More Rain .- Yesterday afternoon the clouds broke away and the afternoon and evening were clear. The atmosphere was sultry. About midnight rain commenced to fail again, and between that time and daylight there were several very heavy showers. During to-day lighter showers have continued at intervals. The streets of the city have been pretty thoroughly cleansed by the heavy rains of the past few days, and the crops in the suburbs have been greatly improved.

THE SCHUYLKILL .- During last evening the water in the Schuylkill rose very rapidly, and at 11 o'clock last night the water on the dam was five feet deep. Then it commenced to fall, and by this morning had fallen twenty-three inches. The current is very swift, but there are no indications of any damage having been done in the interior. The heavy rain which prevailed at an early hour this morning will probably cause another rise in the river. another rise in the river.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire last night, about a quarter past 10 o'clock, was caused by the burning of some light material in the Franklin Planing Mill and Box Manufactory, corner of Girard avenue and Vienta street, occupied by Alpheus Cook and others. The fire originated from the heating of a journal, and was discovered by the private watchman, who gave the alarm. The flames were prevented from spreading by the timely arrival of the firemen.

STORE ROBBERY .- The store of Mrs. Hater, at Girard avenue and Marlborough streets, was robbed of a lot of merino shirts and drawers yesterday afternoon, and $1.50 in small change were also taken from the money drawer. John Menen was agrested afterwards on suspicion of having committed the robbery. He was taken before Ald. Clouds and was sent below in default of $1,000 bail to answer.

APPOINTMENT, -Mr. Joseph C. Fuller has been appointed special detective officer upon the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, and has been combissioned by the Governor of New Jersey. Mr. Fuller has had considerable experience in police business, having formerly been Lieutenant of the First Police District of this city.

CAPE MAY, Gossir.-We learn that the ball given to the children has to be repeated. Every person was highly delighted, and Mr. Mark Hass ler, the originator of these entertainments, made himself famous. The next Children's Ball will be given at the Columbia House on Tuesday next.

THE MEAD STREET WHARF DISASTER .- Coroner Daniels has summoned W. H. Rolan, Edwin H. Hawkins, Eli Krupp, Edward A. Howell, Benjamin D. Bois and Richard Wood as a jury to investigate the recent disaster at Mead street wharf.

Dogs and Goats Captured .- During the past week 94 unmuzzled dogs were captured in the city. Of that number 17 were redeemed and the remaining 77 were killed.

The stray goats captured during the same period numbered 23, of which 15 were redeemed. POINT BREEZE PARK .- On Monday afternoon next the trot postponed from the first of August will take place at Point Breeze Park. - Omnibuses will start from Library street at 21% o'clock.

DIAMOND BEACH PARK .- On next Monday afternoon, there will be a race at Diamond Beach Park, Cape May, for a purse of $500. It will be the third day of the season.

THE COURTS.

QUARTER SESSIONS-Judge Peirce.-At the opening of the Court a habeas corpus, involving the custody of a boy, was partially heard, after which descriton cases were resumed. The case referred to yesterday, in which the wife com-plained of the brutal treatment of her husband, and in which the husband offered to take back his wife and treat her well, was taken up. The husband called witnesses to prove that they never saw him intoxicated. They also represented the husband to be an industrious man. At the close of the testimony the husband renewed his proposition to take his wife back to his house. Judge Peirce said that the defendant had better first reform his drinking habits, and remove from a place where he is flanked on both sides by taverns. Until then he should pay $3 per week towards the support of his wife.

Beer Drinking in Germany.

In speaking of beer drinking in Germany, a correspondent writing from Munich says: The celebrated Bavarian beer in Munich attains its perfection. I went one day to the celebrated royal brewery, which is supposed to be the best brew in Germany, and every drop of which is drank on the premises. went into a court-yard having thuch the air of the purlieus of a horse stable. Here, scattered about in groups, sitting or standing, were two hundred people, about half the usual number to be seen at any other, this being dinner hour, drinking beer out of capacious stone jugs, smoking and talking. premises are open to business from 6, A. M., to 12, midnight, during which time a steady stream of beer is gurgling down Teutonic throats. I had to do as the rest did—wait on myself. I followed the crowd into a dark, low room, waited till I saw one man empty and finish with his beer mug, which I then took and went to a stream of water constantly running, rinsed my mug as others did, then took my turn at a table, where each comer handed over his mug with the price of its fill of beer to a man behind the table, who pushed in my mug with a crowd of others to another man, who, standing at the wooden spiggot of a cask, one of many in a row, filled the mugs as they were passed in, and filling them, called out the number of each mug, engraved on its lid, and which each customer must note when he hands up his mug. "Number 374"—that was my mug—called out in lusty German, and I elbowed my way up among men, women and children, and found myself the lawful owner of two pints and a half of royal Munich beer. I took my treasure, value four cents, out of doors, and planting the mug on a barrel head, squared myself for, to me, the rather heavy process of "getting on the outside" of that quantity of beverage. With the aid of a stout porter, "No. 25" on his hat band, whom I invited to get on the outside of a good share of it, the thing was done, and porter "No. 25" opened his ruddy cheeks to say "Ich dank you." Just in this way one hundred casks per diem, the whole product of this brewery, are drank on the spot.

DEATH OF HON. HENRY STEVENS.—This gentleman died in Barnet, Vt., on the 31st ult., aged theman died in Barnet, Vt., on the 31st ult., aged 75 years. He was a farmer, and a man considerably in public life. He was, we believe, a member of the Legislature for several years, and President of the Vermont Historical Society; a man of strong sense, and much respected. His knowledge of books relating to American history, and of the M88, still preserved among the families of the public men of the Revolutionary and subsequent periods of our history, was very families of the public men of the Revolutionary and subsequent periods of our history, was very extraordinary. He was, until a stroke of paralysis deprived him of the powers of locomotion, in the habit of traveling about the country, collecting facts relative to American MSS, books and documents, and frequently supplying the deficiencies in the best sets in public and private leads.

CITY NOTICES.

OPORTO GRAPE CULTURE. — This country is becoming noted for the enterprise of wine-growers— New Jersey particularly, where the celebrated Port Grape Wine is made purely from grape juice. The following letter from an emigrate in sight of Speer's vineyard, will be of interest to our Passaio, October 20th, 1865. I hereby certify that Mr. A. Speer of this village has a large vineyard of choice grape vines, which are looking very fine. He also purchases a great many grapes, not as yet producing as many himself as is required to keep his stock of wine full. He has the Port Grape, the wine of which is held in high estimation, and of which he has a large quantity on hand lying in his cellars, requiring age before he dis-

The above wine can be procured of our druggists. A WORD OF ADVICE.—We would advise every eader of the Bulletin to pay a visit to the Confec tionery establishment of E. G. Whitman & Co., No. 318 Chestnut street, below Fourth, where they will find an assortment of good things that will make the mouth water, and which are calculated to carry joy and happiness to the children and "women folks" at the country house and elsewhere. Their stock of confections appropriate to the summer season is large and varied, and their articles are peerless in respect to purity and delicacy. Their neat boxes filled with assorted dainties are just the thing to send to the country

Their stock of skirts embraces all the most fashionable and desirable makes, and their prices are unusually

STICK A PIN HERE.—The only really perfect sewing machine is that made in Philadelphia by the American Buttonhole and Overseaming Sewing Machine Company. It is far ahead of even the next best machine. Call at the exhibition rooms, Eleventh and Chestnut streets, and see for yourself.

THE REMOVAL OF SHERIDAN AND OTHERS .-Speaking of removals, our attention is called to the extensive removals of clothing from the counters at Charles Stokes & Co.'s Ready-made Clothing House, under the Continental, to the possession of large numbers of the public, and with this peculiarity, tha the removals are satisfactory to all parties concerned

A Universal Fact.-Every gentleman going at the end of the week to join his family in the country stops at Haines & Leeds, No. 906 Market street, for box of their choice Sugar Plums. Time was that confections were regarded as unwholesome, but Messrs Haines & Leeds have so perfected the process of refluing the materials, that the offerings of their laboratory take the highest rank in the market. They are rdered by all first-class countyr caterers. Wood's American Kitchener.—This splendid nousehold convenience for baking, boiling and cooking purposes, has attained a reputation unequalled by any other range in the world, and all builders owners of dwelling houses will act wisely in employing them in preference to any others. They do their work with unfailing excellence, and are universally ac counted the greatest kitchen blessing of the Nine senth Conture No dwelling house 'first-clase" without one. GOOD WINE MAKES GOOD BLD VINEYARDS, NEW JERSEY. SPEER'S PORT GRAPE WINE, FOUR YEARS OLD.

FOUR YEARS OLD.

This justly celebrated native Wine is made from the judge of the Oporto Grape raised in this country. Its invaluable TONIC AND STRENGTHENING PROPERTIES are unsurpossed by any other native Wine. Being the pure judge of the grape, produced under Mr. Speer's own personal supervision, its purity and genuineness are guarantied. The youngest child may partake of its generous qualities, and the weakest invalid may use it to advantage. It is particularly beneficial to the aged and dobilitated, and suited to the various aliments that afflict the weaker sow, it is in every respect
