He (Mr. M.) had not looked at the country of the country o the paper, because he was suspicious of all that came from the Judge Advocate General.

Mr. Carrington, again interrupting, denied the right of the centileman to speak of the officers of the centileman to speak of the officers of right of the gentleman to speak of the officers of the Government.

Mr. Merrick, resuming, said if Judge Holt's statement now was correct, that the recommendation was part of the record, his published report was not correct.

After some other corrections Judge Fisher de-livered the following charge to the jury:

Gentlemen of the Jury: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed"—so spake the Almighty to his servant Noah, when the great deluge had receded, and the ark had safely rested upon the holy summit of Mount Ararat. This is God's own law, and its wisdom is acknowledged by all civilized nations. Now and then we meet with sentimental philosophers who think themselves wise above what is written, and who deem it their duty to lift up their voices in condemnation of this flat of Jehovah, and although they have made but few thorough converts to their perni-cious doctrines, they not untrequently succeed in creating in the minds of honest and tender-hearted people a vitiated sentimentalism their ears to the stern voice of justice, and lister only to the gentle, kindly whisperings of mercy, forgetting that mercy to the guilty is injustice to he innocent. With such sentimentality you ave as jurors nothing whatever to do. It is no ency, if you believe him guilty of participating in the crime with which he stands charged
