CITY BULLETIN.

ATTEMPTED WIFE MURDER.—This morning before Alderman Tittermary, Evan Beeler had a hearing upon the charge of assault and battery upon his wife. It seems that he has not been living with his wife for some time past. Mrs. Beeler has been residing with her sister, Mrs. Parks, on Queen street, below Sixth. Recently Beeler has had several interviews with his wife. Last night he went to the house where she resides. Mrs. Beeler was afraid of trouble, and invited him into the house, where there were several other parties. After conversing for a brief time, it is alleged, he suddenly attacked his wife with a knife, and Mrs. Beeler was stabbed in the right breast, in the left side, and over the eye. Some of her fingers were cut as she attempted to defend herself, and another blow, evidently aimed at her throat, took off a piece of her nose. Some of the wounds are considered dangerous. After the commission of the act, Beeler ran, and was pursued by some of the members of the Marion Hose Company. He was captured at Fifth and Catharine streets. After the hearing this morning, Beeler was committed to prison.

FIREMEN'S TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION.—The Washington Engine Company, of Brooklyn, will arrive in the city this evening, on a visit, and will be the guests of the Reliance Fire Company. There will be a fine turn-out of the Fire Department to receive the visitors. The route of the procession will be as follows:

Up Walnut to Third, up Third to Chestnut, up Chestnut to Ninth, up Ninth to Spring Garden, up Spring Garden (on north side) to Thirteenth, down Thirteenth to Arch, up Arch to Fifteenth, down Fifteenth to Fitzwater, down Fitzwater to Tenth, down Tenth to Wharton, up Wharton to Eleventh, up Eleventh to Reliance Engine house, and there dismiss.

ASSAULT WITH A KNIFE.—A man named Albright was before Ald. Godbou this morning, upon the charge of assault and battery. It seems that last night he was in a lager beer saloon, in the neighborhood of Sixth and Race streets. When he was about to drink, an individual mixed gin with his beer. At this Albright became very angry and attacked the man. He was seized by several persons, but struggled, broke away, and drawing a knife, cut the man in several places. None of the wounds inflicted are considered serious. Albright was held in $800 bail to answer at Court.

PRESS CLUB.—A regular stated meeting of the Press Club of Philadelphia will be held this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the rooms No. 515 Chestnut street. Amendments to the Constitution will be considered, and other important business will be transacted.

THE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The stated meeting of the Philadelphia Society for Promoting Agriculture, was held this morning at the rooms No. 702 Walnut street. An instructing essay on Horse-Shoeing was read by Dr. Robert McClure, V. S.

REGISTRY OF VOTERS.—In accordance with the amended rules of the Republican party, the Registry Boards of the various Wards commenced last evening registering the names of all Republican voters, preparatory to holding the delegate elections.

FIRE.—This morning, shortly before five o'clock, a fire broke out in an old three-storied building, No. 18 Bank street, occupied by W. H. Stout as a packing-box manufactory. The roof and upper part were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $500 or $600.

ACCIDENT TO A POLICEMAN.—This morning, about eight o'clock, policeman John Moore, of the Third District, slipped from the front platform of a car at Seventh and South streets, as he was getting on. The car passed over his arm. He was taken to the Hospital.

HOP AT THE SEA-SIDE.—An invitation dress ball will be given at the United States Hotel, Atlantic City, on Saturday evening next, the 10th inst. A full orchestra will be in attendance, and an unusually brilliant entertainment may be expected.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—A lad who was sitting on a canal boat, near Fairmount, was knocked off into the river by the tow line of another boat. He was rescued from drowning by Officer Gibson, of the Schuylkill Harbor Police.

SLIGHT FIRE.—About two o'clock this morning the rear portion of the machine shop of Nicholas Ashford, on Ninth street, above Columbia avenue, was slightly damaged by fire.

THE COURTS.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Brewster.—Yesterday afternoon Henry Alegood and William Devoe, the two notorious burglars caught in the factory on Cherry street, above Fifth, last week, pleaded guilty to the charge of entering the premises with intent to commit a burglary. They were each sentenced to pay a fine of $500, and to undergo an imprisonment of three years and nine months in the Eastern Penitentiary. These two men have but lately served an imprisonment of seven years in the New Jersey Penitentiary.

William Ball was also among the prisoners disposed of yesterday. He was convicted of a charge of committing an indecent assault upon a child, eight years of age, at Fairmount Park. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and to undergo an imprisonment of five years in the Eastern Penitentiary.

This morning Mr. D. Y. Killgore, the attorney engaged by the Hope Engine Company to prosecute the members of the Moyamensing Hose Company for the assault upon the house and members of the Hope, came into Court and stated to the Judge that he had just been informed that five or six members of the Moyamensing Hose Company were on the Grand Jury. He therefore desired that the jury be summoned to appear in Court, in order that the array might be challenged. It was suggested by Mr. O'Byrne, for the Moyamensing Hose Company, who was present, that notice should have been given of the challenge, and further that the challenge should have been made on Monday, when the Grand Jury first appeared.

Judge Brewster suggested that an affidavit should have been prepared, setting forth the facts alleged by Mr. Killgore.

After some argument, the Grand Jurors were brought into Court, Judge Brewster stating that the Court was not trying the question between the Moyamensing and Hope, and if the jurors answered that they were members of either Company, it could not be cause of challenge, the Court not being aware judicially of any case involving the membership of either organization. But the counsel had the right to ask the jurors if they had formed or expressed an opinion on the subject referred to.

The fifteen jurors were then examined in the manner indicated by Judge Brewster. Seven of them had formed an opinion, but added that this opinion would not influence them, as they recognized the effect of the oath they had taken. Eight jurors answered that they had not formed an opinion. The jurors then retired to their room, and the subject dropped.

CITY NOTICES.

THE worthy object of the Riverside Institute, under the auspices of the Washington Library Company, for the gratuitous education of the orphans of Soldiers and Sailors who fell in the late war, is becoming every day more and more interesting to our citizens. The Trustees have initiated a plan most liberal and generous in every particular. Every share sold at one dollar entitles the holder to a magnificent steel-plate engraving, an ornament to the parlor or the chamber; not only this, but it also guarantees them one present in the great distribution, which takes place in September next. The engravings may be examined and shares obtained at the principal office, No. 1225 Chestnut street.

PHILADELPHIA should feel proud of its own manufactures, particularly the great American Overseaming Sewing and Button-hole Machine. Why so? Because it is the only real perfect sewing machine in the market. It has no equal; it belongs to the present—all other sewing machines belong to the past. Call at the exhibition rooms, Eleventh and Chestnut streets, and be convinced of the beauty, economy, power and worth of this machine—the wonder of the 19th century.

SOMETHING NEW.—Morse, 902 Arch Street, has fresh daily at his counters a new Swiss Bun, only 5cc. per pound—try it.

DELICIOUS PEACHES, rare fruits, and fine confections, including the inimitable Sweet Jordan Roasted Almonds, fine French Mixtures, Caramels, Portuguese Secrets, et cetera, at the leading confectionery emporium of Philadelphia—Mr. A. L. Vansant's, Ninth and Chestnut streets.

PETERSON & LITTLE'S HOOP-SKIRT EMPORIUM.—Every day's experience confirms the assurance that the only place in this city to buy Hoop-Skirts is at the store of Messrs. Peterson & Little, 704 Chestnut street, who are also the sole agents in Philadelphia for the sale of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines. Their stock of skirts embraces all the most fashionable and desirable makes, and their prices are unusually moderate.

THOSE who have tried it say that the clothing purchased at Charles Stokes & Co.'s, under the Continental, is the cheapest—because the best—of any clothing they ever possessed. All can ascertain this fact at a very small expense by purchasing as above.

E. J. WILLIAMS. B. J. WOODWARD.
"THE MURPHEY HOUSE-FURNISHING STORE," No. 922 CHESTNUT ST., BELOW TENTH.

The undersigned desire to inform the public that they have purchased the Old Established House-furnishing Store of John A. Murphey, No. 922 Chestnut street, and design shortly, as soon as alterations and repairs will allow, in presenting one of the largest and most complete stock of goods in this city or elsewhere. This store has always maintained the supremacy over all others in the same line of business, and the present proprietors are determined to spare no expense or pains in preserving and adding to its already extended reputation. We only solicit a call to convince.

In addition to this brilliant array of distinguished writers, there have appeared weekly contributions from "GRACE GREENWOOD," pronounced the most charming writer among the authoresses of America; MRS. SARAH J. HALE, MRS. CORINNA A. HOPKINSON, MRS. GEORGIANA H. S. HULL, "VIOLET VANE," (Mrs. Jane C. Howell,) "LEONE LEONI," (J. D. Osborne,) our gifted Paris correspondent, with occasional Letters from London, by MRS. ANNA CORA MOWATT RITCHIE.

A distinguishing feature of the paper has been the illustrated Fashion Department, under the title of "THE LADIES' CLUB," by "JENNIE JUNE," (Mrs. Jennie C. Croly,) a vigorous though pleasing writer, and an undisputed authority on matters appertaining to Fashion.

Articles from all those above named, and from several others of like eminence in the walks of light literature, will appear in the new volume for 1866-'7, forming

A Splendid and Unequaled Array of Talent

The public have learned from what has been done the present year what the publisher of promises he more than redeems; and having started to make this Family Paper a success, increasing by his enterprise and great liberality its circulation to nearly three times what it was a year ago, risks little in relying on the taste and judgment of the public to aid him in at least doubling in the next year what this year has trebled. To this end the publisher takes pleasure in announcing that, at least,

TWO BRILLIANT NOVELS

will be kept running through its columns at the same time, together with short original

from the pens of the distinguished authors named above.

This new feature of the "HOME WEEKLY," by MRS. ALMIRA LINCOLN PHELPS, will consist of Single Figures, Groups, Scenery, &c., taken from nature, delineated in pen-drawings for the mind's eye. We shall not confine ourselves to the portraiture of distinguished characters, but occasionally bring forward from the shades of domestic life individuals who have been ornaments or blessings in their private circle. The Picture Gallery contains the Wives of our Presidents, or "The American Court."

THE AGRICULTURAL AND HORTICULTURAL DEPARTMENT has been assigned to able and practical writers.

POETRY, WIT AND HUMOR, ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.
