CITY NOTICES.

With the inducements held out to our citizens, to aid a noble object, every man, woman and child should have a share of stock for the benefit of the Riverside Institute (located at Beverly, New Jersey) established for the gratuitous education of the orphans of Soldiers and Sailors who fell in the great struggle for the perpetuation of the Union. This meritorious affair is under the control of the Washington Library Company, who, in order that their benevolent object may be successfully accomplished, have issued live series of fine steel-plate engravings, one of which is given with every share of stock sold, at prices much below their retail value. In connection with this superb inducement, every shareholder is guaranteed a present in the great distribution, which is to come off in Sentember next, or at an earlier period if the full amount of stock is subscribed. Further information may be obtained at the principal office, No. 1225 Chestnut street.

A Splendid and Unequaled Array of Talent

The public have learned from what has been done the present year what the publisher of THE PHILADELPHIA HOME WEEKLY promises he more than redeems; and having started to make this Family Paper a success, increasing by his enterprise and great liberality its circulation to nearly three times what it was a year ago, risks little in relying on the taste and judgment of the public to aid him in at least doubling in the next year what this year has trebled. To this end the publisher takes pleasure in announcing that, at least, TWO BRILLIANT NOVELS will be kept running through its columns at the same time, together with short original

STORIES AND SKETCHES from the pens of the distinguished authors named above

"OUR PICTURE GALLERY." This new feature of the "HOME WEEKLY," by MRS. ALMIRA LINCOLN PHELPS, will consist of Single Figures, Groups, Scenery, &c., taken from nature, delinested in pen-drawings for the minds eye. We shall not confine ourselves to the portraiture of distinguished characters, but occasionally bring forward from the shades of domestic life individuals who have been ornaments or blessings in their private circle. The Picture Gallery contains the Wives of our Presidents, or "The American Court."
