MORMONISM IN EUROPE.

The English Mormon Head Centre and his Converts. By the time this reaches you, Mr. Anderand his flock will be in America. Last "uesday, five hundred and sixty persons professing the Mormon faith left this country, anenied by Anderson.

Since my last letter, there has been a great flutter amongst these strange people. d centre organized an excursion to the head centre organized an exotinced Paris exhibition, which came off and proved a grand success for Mr. Anderson. A week Paris, with hotel bills paid, for five pounds, is something extraordinary just now, when the charge at all hotels is a pound and thirty shillings a day. However, Mr. Anderson kept faith with his flock; and for the promised athount catered well to his patrons. He bired a big house on the Place Royale, and had made up some hundred beds. The arrangements were excellent, and all enjoyed elves immensely. It would appear that the majority of the Mormon emigrants that left this country the ther day are uncommonly flush with money.

The ladies in the expedition are by no means so bad-healthy, ruddy, buxom young maidens, that would do no shame to all-room in this country, save in respect heir morals. They all appeared delighted with the splendid photographs shown them by Anderson and his associates. These he eclared to represent Utah, whilst they were, verily, pictures of the most picturesque parts of Cornwall and Devonshire. The
