THE DELAWARE .--- The tide in the Delaware today is very high, and nearly all the wharves along the front of the city are submerged. Every-thing destructible was removed during yester-day, and therefore no serious damage has been done. The stream is pretty clear from rubbish, and there are, as yet, no indications of a freshet in the interior. in the interior.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS.—A very pleasant way of spending an afternoon or evening is by an ex-cursion on the river. On Sundays the steamer John A. Warner leaves at 1.45 and 6 o'clock P. M.; the Pilot Boy at 9 Å. M. and 2.30 P. M. The Gloucester boats leave South street wharf every half hour half hour.

POINT BREEZE PARK.—On Tuesday next there will be a race for $500. "Boston Girl," "Belle of Washington" and "Ida" will be the contending nags.

As the Parisians found out that the Sultan is so remarkably moral a man, and that he was proof against the seductions of the vir-tuous belles, and the aristocratic prostitutes of the demi-monde, they said it would be a good idea to send him to Florence, in order to give Victor Emmanuel a sound lecture on morality. It appears that the Re Galantuomo sadly needs such a lecture. His late mistress, a drummer's daughter, on whom he conferred the title of Countess de Milletiori, has already had a great many fair successors. The lady who possesses the heart of the naughty King is a pretty danseuse from Venice, who accompanies him on all his hunting expeditions in the mountains.
