A FAMILY QUARREL-A WOMAN DANGEROUSLY Shor.—William Brophy and James Brophy are residents of Tacony, in the Twenty-third Ward, and their houses adjoin. When William got mar-ried, his father gave him the house to live in rent free. His brothers became jealous because they had not been treated in the same manner, and for had not been treated in the same manner, and for the past year the subject has been one of conten-tion between them. The aid of the police has been invoked several times to prevent disturb-ances. Yesterday afternoon there was another 'quarrel. Mrs. William Brophy took her hus-band's gun and hid it. She afterwards showed him where she had put the weapon, and he went and got it. At that time Mrs. Ellen-Brophy, wife of James, was about passing into the house at the time, and had a child in her arms. Mrs. William Brophy cried out, "Give it the house at the time, and had a child in her arms. Mrs. William Brophy cried out, "Give it to her!" William Brophy had placed the gun on the fence. He then pulled the trigger, and the weapon was discharged. The ball passed through the leg of the child, and entered the abdomen of Mrs. Ellen Brophy. The injury of the latter is of such a Mangerous character that her recovery is considered very doubtfuly. Wm. Brophy was arrested, and taken before Alderman Holme. He was committed to await the result of the injuries inflicted. juries inflicted.

AN OWNER WANTED .- The Fifth District Police desire an owner for two horses, which were found estray last night.

The Woes of the Wigglers. We have no objection to dancing. For young people it is a very delightful and senrecreation. It is a better thing for children than the stupid games which range from "loto" to "blind man's bluff." It is a beautiful and cheerful exercise, and in many ways a beneficial pastime. But for mixed companies of grown people, we abominate it.

Ladies may like it—some of them evidently do like it. And yet, even they must at times pine for the higher enjoyment of pleasant conversation, which is now so completely exiled from New York society.

Gentlemen who go to their home at evening for rest and home quiet, are not always made happy by spending half or two-thirds of the night in dancing. Sensible ladies, who enjoy good conversation, are not especially delighted with a night of tiresome dancing. But he or she who keeps up with latter-day society and custom must join the ranks of the dancers or be blanks. Dancing is the order —and the nuisance—of the day. There is too much of it. All sensible men and women are tired of it. We want conversation in its place. If this cannot be, gentlemen will seek the clubs, and ladies will form themselves into little circles of their own, in which they can find the real enjoyment they desire.—N
Y. Gazette.

Survey of Lower California.—A California paper says:—"Professor Gabb, of the State Geological Survey, who recently made an extended exploration of the peninsula, has presented to the Academy of Natural Sciences a report on the geology of the country, accompanied by a map. He represented the peninsula as quite worthless for agricultural purposes, and its mineral resources as confined to a point on the northeast, where the Triunfo and a few other valuable mines redeem it from utter worthlessness. He stated that prospecting had been done extensively all over it, but, with the above exceptions, without profit. Geologically, the peninsula presented many of the leading features of the coast range in this State. The most remarkable point of resemblance is the extent of the table-mountain formations, which, like those in California, consist of layers of sand, gravel and bowlders cemented together, and capped with layers of volcanic rock, but with important difference that while the tablemountains of California are rich in gold, those in Lower California contain none of that desirable metal

GOVERNOR SMITH AND SHOULDER-STRAPS. Pending the arrival of Governor Green Clay Smith, the inhabitants of Montana had organized a militia to fight the Indians, adopting Artemus Ward's plan of organization, viz.: All volunteers to be brigadier-generals. The Governor therefore caused much discontent by his military orders re-organizing the com-mands and consolidating them. "General" mands and consolidating them. Thoroughman takes command with the rank of colonel, with a field and staff of two colonels, one lieutenant-colonel, three majors. and the proper officers for ten companies. But all the uncommissioned brigadiers have failed to come to time, and the impression prevailed at Helena that the attempt to form a militia was a failure. Indeed, the necessity for it wasn't so much believed to exist after the supply of shoulder-straps became exhausted.

EUGENIK SUCCESSFUL.—The French Empress has at last succeeded in obtaining her entrée into good society. She will accompany her husband to Salzburg on the special invitation of the Emperor and Empress of Austria. Hitherto most of the royal and imperial ladies of Europe have persistently "cut" the ex-countess. But now that a lady of such unimpeachable ton as her imperial Majesty Elizabeth Amélie Eugénie has taken her up, her future is assured. When the Czar of Russia and King of Prussia next visit Paris they will have to bring their wives.
