THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1867.

IN THE CHOIR.

On rolled the mighty melody, as though A multitude passed by-A sea of sound and sweetness; here and there clear young voice pealed high:

A glory crept along the vaulted roof, A glory crept thong thong with the start And tinged the old gray stone; The sumblue stole it from the windows where The saints each stood alone.

Below knelt youth and beauty in their pride, Fair as the flowers of June-How did that psalm of strife and agony hime with each young heart's tur And then the heavy oaken door swung back

A woman entered in-Wan in the face and weary in her mien, r garments soiled and thin; And like a blot upon a robe, she stood

Amid the gorgeous fane; And youth and beauty drew themselves apart,

These different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of Chemis-try and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently in-dicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and preactived by the fa-culty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applica-ble only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France, with regard to the sale of medical preparations and only those which have undergone an Taws exist in France, with regard to the said of means preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the Hoopitals, or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the Government.
