A BURLESQUE FIREMEN'S PARADE. - For some time past, when the firemen have turned out for the reception of visiting companies, or companies belonging to this city who have been away, the rear line has been brought up by a burlesque rear line has been brought up by a buriesque company. Originally the burlesquers were called the "Screw Guzzle" Hose, but more recently the title has been "Duster Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1½." This morning the "Dusters" started on an excursion to Wilmington; Delaware, and paraded through a number of streets previand paraded through a number of streets previous to their departure. A band of music headed the procession. Then followed pioneers carrying brooms and axes. The company then followed, dragging an excellent imitation of a steam fire engine. All the men in the line were dressed in straw hats, linen coats, and chiefs and black rangialous. red chirts and black pantaloons. As a substitute for wreaths of flowers, generally carried by the foremen, some of the men wore around their necks wreaths composed of doughnuts. The parade created considerable merriment along the streets. This evening the "Pusters" will return to the city, and there is to be a "grand reception to the city, and there is to be a "grand reception." tion." Some eight or ten burlesque companies will appear in the procession. The line will form at Broad and Christian streets at eight o'clock, and move over a route which includes almost every section of the city. If the "Dusters" are a

The route of the parade this evening will be as follows: Form on Broad, right resting on Christiau, down Christiau to Third, up Third to Chesnut, up Chesnut to Twelfth, up Twelfth to Arch, up the to Thirteenth up Thirteenth to Race. up Arch to Thirteenth, up Thirteenth to Race, down Race to Third, up Third to Girard avenue, down Girard avenue to Shackamaxon, down down Girard avenue to Shackamaxon, cown Shackamaxon to Allen, up Allen to Frankford road, down Frankford road to Laurel, up Laurel to Second, down Second to Green, down Green to Front, and there dismiss.

Mr. Christophar Benhart, of the Polly Whopper Engine, has been chosen Chief Marshal, and will be assisted by several aids.

STEALING A WATCH.-A young man named Wm. Olden was arrested on Saturday night for stealing a watch belonging to Mr. Durr, a tavernkeeper at Ridge avenue and Francis street. Olden pretended to be drunk, and behaved disorderly on the pavement in front of the house Mr. Durr endeavored to push him away, and then Olden seized the watch and made off. He was chased about a square and then captured. The watch was found on his person. The thief was committed by Ald. Pancoast.

RIOTOUS CONDUCT .- This morning, about one o'clock. James Reill and Michael Long were arrested at Fifth and Marriott streets, for inciting to riot. They were behaving disorderly and had their pockets filled with pieces of bricks. It is also alleged that they assaulted Officer Twiggs. The prisoners were taken before Ald. Mink, and were committed in default of $1,000 bail.

THE TAPPING -A boy named John Nugent, aged fifteen years, was arrested on Saturday for robbing the money-drawer of a store at Germantown avenue and Berks street. He got about $13, but said that that was the fifth drawer which he had robbed on that day. He was committed by Alderman Heins.

STOLEN HARNESS.—George Johnson and Chas. Morse, both colored, were arrested on Saturday night, about half-past ten o'clock, on suspicion of having stolen two sets of harness, which were found in their possession. They were committed for a further hearing. The harness is at the Fifth District Police Station, awaiting an owner.

LAST TRIP TO CAPE MAY .- On Tuesday, Aug. 27th, the steamer Samuel M. Felton will make her last trip for the season to Cape May, leaving Chestnut Street wharf at 9 A. M., and returning on Wednesday. Excursion tickets $3, including carriage hire. Fare each way $2 50.

A BRUTAL FELLOW.—Samuel Brown has been committed by Alderman Ramsdell, to answer the charge of assaulting an old woman who keeps a cake stand at the Ridge avenue railway depot, in Manayunk. When arrested, he had the woman by the throat, attempting to choke her.

PHOENIX HOSE COMPANY .- Yesterday was the fiftieth anniversary of this Company. To-day they will celebrate it by a grand banquet at Pea Shore. Very many of our prominent citizens will take part on the occasion.

RUNAWAY BOY .-- A boy named Daniel McIntyre, aged 11 years, is at the police station at Frankford. He is the son of Hugh McIntyre, residing at No. 8 Logan street, Pittsburgh, and has run away from home.

APPOINTMENT.-Henry B. Hirst, Esq., has been appointed Commissioner of Deeds, &c., for the State of Tennessee. He has also received a similar appointment from the Governor of New DISTURBING A CHURCH .- Mary Goodwin was arrested in St. Philip's Church, on Queen street, near Second, yesterday, for being drunk and disorderly, and disturbing the congregation. Alderman Tittermary committed her to prison. · House Robbery .-- A dwelling, No. 406 Green street, was entered last night and was robbed of silverware and clothing to the amount of $75.

DIAMONDS

CHARITY!

The World-famous Yacht Henrietta, that Won the Ocean Race, has been Bought from her late Proprietor,

AND WILL BE ONE OF THE AWARDS!

A Farm of 600 Acres.

Worth $60,000, and one single Present of the guaranteed The proceeds of this Great Benevolent Buterprise ar

NATIONAL SOLDIERS' HOME AT GETTYSBURG,

For Crippled and Disabled Veterans of the Late War.

$300,000 of Diamonds to be Given Away, and a Total of 3,807 Awards.

This enterprise, in view of its noble object, and the impossibility of erecting Soldiers' Homes, such as the Palact of the Invalids in Paris, by private benevolence, has been Specially Chartered and Incorporated by the Pennsylvania Legislature, in an Act bearing date March 6, 1867.

Under and by the authority of the Act above mentioned, the Supervisors appointed to raise funda—in such manner as they may deem proper, have, after consultation with the friends of the measure, concluded to have a GRAND PRIZE DISTRIBECTION. They see the success achieved by an individual, for his own benefit, when offering the large inducements to the public of an Opera House; and they cannot think for a moment that the American people will be less generous for so noble a purpose as the erection of a Home for those who became disabled in fighting for the Union.

This is to be

A NATIONAL INSTITUTION, free for all crippled and invalid soldiers.

THE PLAN TO RAISE FUNDS.

Two hundred and twenty the usand subscribers, at five dollars each, for which each will receive a splendid Chromo-Lithorau hie Vio'r of the Battle-8id, twenty-four by thirty inches, worth the price of the subscription. This great work of art is now in the bands of the engravers. Besides this, each subscriber will have a chance for the awards to be made, including among them the splendid mezent of the guaranteed value of TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, in cash.

To the public we now exampetly appeal. The inducements are such that every one should subscribe.

First.—Gratitude to those who left home and friends to fight the battles for the Union. We appeal to you to add in giving them a Home, now that the fate of war has rendered them unable to work for a living.

Second.—For a subscription of $5 you have a chance for the Grand Award valued at $200,000—in itself a magnificent fortune; besides 3,800,000 of Diamonds. And if you get none of these, and should you also fall to win the world-famous yacht "HENSIETTA." you get the full worth your money in the Splendid Picture of the great battle-field of Getty-burg, with the gratification of knowing that your mohes goes to provide a Home for the, crippled and loyal soldiers of our late tartible civil war.
