There two famous and nale are now, since the refirement of Dexter, considered able to make better time than any other horses in the country. They arrived on Thugsday evening. Lady Thorne is groomed at the stables of Gren. Hartrant, and Mountain Maid at the handsome new stables of Mr. Hitner, near the Fair grounds. The admittance on the day of the race will be fifty cents. Should the weather be unfavorable on Monday, the trot will be potponed until Tuesday. Grant. Sickles and Camby. Grant, Sickles and Canby.
