> The Democrats presume largely upon the forgetfulness of the soldiers when they come forward and demand their votes. The men who fought for the salvation of the country can never forget that in 1864, while they were struggling with the enemy in the field, the Democrats at home officially declared "the sures instituted by the Government to give aid and comfort to our soldiers while in the field; that called them "Lincoln hirelings, robbers and plunderers." and persistently opposed giving bounties to them. These things are a part of the black record of the Democratic party during the days of the country's tribulation. If the Copperhead press can deny the truth of these facts they may have some right to ask the soldiers for their votes. To do so. with these facts patent to the world, WILLIAM B.
