TION. FOURTH EDITION 1867. FALL AND WINTER. 1867. FIFTH EDITIO 4:00 O'Cleek.

BY TELEGRAPH. FROM WASHINGTON.

The Death of Sir Frederick Bruce. Arrangements for the Funeral.

From Washington. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.-Senator Summer telegraphed to Secretary Seward last night, from Boston, that Sir Frederick W. Bruce arrived at the Tremont House at 9 o'clock very ill, and died at 2 o'clock this morning. The Secretary at 4 o'clock this morning received Mr. Ford, Chargé d'Affaires, to confer upon the subject. Mr. Howard, of the British Legation, proceeded to Boston at 7 o'clock this morning. The Government and the British/Legation have communicated the sad intelligence to London. The arrangements for his interment are deferred awaiting instructions from London. Orders have been given to pay proper honors to the deceased at Boston. The flag over the State Department is at half-

Bruce, issued the following orders · CITY HALL, September 19th. 1867.-Sir Frederick W. A. Bruce, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from Great Britain to the United States, died suddenly at the Tremont House in this city at two o'clock, this morning. As a proper mark of respect to the distinguished representative of a great and friendly power, it is directed that the flags of the city be displayed at half-mast on the City Hall, Fancuil Hall, and the Common, and that the bells of the several churches be tolled during the removal of the body from the city.
