The remarks of District Atterney Gourtney, of sew York.

The remarks of District Attorney Mann have provoked the following from United States District Attorney Courtney:

To the Editor of the New York Herald:

OFFICE OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF UNITED STATES FOR THE SOUTHERS DISTRICT OF New YORK, New YORK, Sept. 27th, 1867.—A friend handed me a copy of the Philadelphia Public Ledger of the 25th inst. in which I find, from the report of a speech purporting to have been made handed me a copy of the Philadelphia Public Ledger of the 25th inst.. in which I find, from the report of a speech purporting to have been made in court in Philadelphia by District Attorney Mann, an attack upon the judicial action of Hon. Samuel Blatchford, District Judge of the United States for the Southern District of New York; and also a charge against me (in the matter of Hamilton) of connivance and with lending myself to the unlawful purposes of certain military officers in New York, and that I have shown "my supreme and perfect ignorance of the first principlee of patriotism and law by lending myself to those officers." This speech was copied in your paper of to-day.

As I know your columns are required for other purposes than those of long controversial discussions between parties. I will dispose of the matter, as far, as I am concerned, very summarily, at the same time stating that what I easy on the subject can be substantiated by evidence.

First—I deny in toto any attempt on my part, directly or indirectly, to interfere with the execution of the laws of Pennsylvania, or that I have assisted, aided or abetted any military officers whatever in procuring the attendance of Captain Brown in New York, with a view or to the end of having him escape from his imprisonment for an alleged contempt.

having him escape from his imprisonment for an alleged contempt.

Second—I deny any knowledge, direct or indirect, of the application for or of the issuing of a writ of habeas corpus in New York by a State-Judge, in behalf of Captain Brown, to the end of having him discharged by said Judge, and I deny any understanding, complicity or collusion for that or any other purpose connected with Captain Brown. And I state that I neither knew nor heard of his being discharged by a State Judge until I saw the statement in the reported remarks of Mr. Mann.

Third—I deny making any promises to Mr.

Third—I deny making any promises to Mr. Mann, except to send his return to the writ to Judge Blatchford, which I did; and I deny the truth of each and every of his base and unprofessional statements and insinuations, as far as they refer to me, leaving to the public considerations.

they refer to me, leaving to the public consideration and estimation the man who will, in a court of justice, stigmatize one of the highest executive officers of the government (the Secretary of the Navy) as resorting in his official action to the "law of the ruffian, the law of the highwayman and the law of the blackguard."

Fourth—If it was deemed necessary, and I had time to write and you space to print it, I could show conclusively that the action of the State. Judge at Philadelphia, in re Hamilton, was utterify without jurisdiction and void, ab initing and that the act of committing Captain Brown was unwarranted by law and by the adjudication of the courts on similar questions. Captain Brown was brought to New York under due and legal process issued by a judge of a court of the United was brought to New York under due and legal process issued by a judge of a court of the United States. He is in the jurisdiction and custody of the court, and will be disposed of by his Honor, Judge Blatchford, as the law requires, irrespective of the threats or bluster of Mr. Mann. If the Judge remands him to a Philadelphia prison and to the tender mercies of the District Attorney, he will cheerfully obey the order. No one knows better than Mr. Mann did at the time, he made his speech in court that it was of no consequence what the New York State court did, and that what the New York State court did, and that Captain Brown was and is subject to the final order of Judge Blatchford on the whole matter.

Fifth—I will not attempt to discuss here, in the high sounding and meaningless verblage of the District Attorney, either Mr. Mann's or my 'supreme and perfect ignorance of the first principles of patriotism and law." On the first branch of the sentence I refer him to the remarks of the illustricity. Inference on prating about patriotism, and trious Jefferson on prating about patriotism, and as to the rest of it, the courts will, perhaps, in due

Any information that District Attorney Mann may desire, as to the reasons which actuated the military officers in the premises, and as to the in-etructions they received from the War Depart-ment, will on a proper request be furnished by Gen. Butterfield, or it may be had by reference to the records under the charge of Gen. Grant. Samuel G. Courtney, United States Attorney.

Contracts have already been made for rock-cuttings beyond, to be done during the winter. The work is being pushed forward with equal energy on the California end of the route, an der the direction of the Central Pacific Company, commencing at Sacramento, and it is confidently expected that the two roads will meet in 1879, thus completing the entire grand line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, on which THIRTY-FIVE MILLION DULLARS in cash have already been expended. From the liberal Government aid, the wealth and energy of the stockhold ers, and the ready market for the First Mortgage Bonds there is no wont of funds for the most vigorous prosecution of the work, and its early completion is as certain as any feture business event can be.

From the relative high charges, the operating expenses of the road are but 22% per cent. of the earnings, and the ratio would be much less if the contractor's business were not done at half rates. Throwing out charges to contra tors for transportation of materials and men ($479,283 41), and deducted from the aggregate of all operating expenses ($395,530 (2) 2274 per cent. ($157,564 42) as the proportion chargeable on the work done for contractors, which was it, and we have the net operating expenses on the commercial business for the quarter, $237,966 50. The amount of Bonds the Company can issue on 295 miles, at $16,000 per mile, is $5,200,000. Interest in gold, three months, at 6 per cent., on this sum, is $78,000; add 40 per cent. premium, to correspond with currency earnings, per cent, premium, to correspond with currency earnings, is $109.200,—showing that the net earnings for this quarter were more than four times the interest on the First Mortgage Bonds on this length of road.

First Mortgage Bonds, whose interest is so amply provided for and so thoroughly secured, must be classed among the infest investments. They pay and are offered for the present at Ninety Cents on the Dollar and Accrued Interest at Six per Cent. in Currency from July 1st.

Many parties are taking advantage of the present high price of Government-stocks to exchange for these Bonds, which are over 15 per cent, cheaper, and, at the current rate of premium on gold, pay

Over Nine Per Cent, Interest.
