FACTS AND FANCIES.

Edwin Booth plays in Pittsburgh this week. -Lady Don is playing in St. Louis.

-The coal fields of Arkansas are found to be very rich. -Missouri has 12,500 Freemasons and 246 lodges.

-Lec, who won the Opera House, has lost his wife. -Arkansas is expecting 1,000 Irishmen from the old country to settle in that State.

-The heralds have discovered that Queen Victoria is a descendant of Caracacus. -The Lowell Courier estimates that the next regency of A. J. will be pro-gregory.

-The niece of the Postmaster-General of the Canada recently outraged all considerations of taste by slipping with a young buck.

-A young man in Chicago was arrested for sleeping in a drunken stupor. -A fast young man in Illinois stole a locomotive and carried it over the mountains.

-It is stated that the "material" taken from the Sealans by our Government after the battle of Rongwa, has been returned to them. -Tung controversy, an "anachronism and a goose" by nature, but coarser than he has the right of the dispute.

-The fishermen plying off Moresa Island, on the coast of England, have discovered about twelve hundred cables of line floating about. The value is estimated at $1,000.

-The chair in which Pius VI. expired, which was deposited in the cathedral of Valence by the Directory in 1793, has been sent to the Pope.

-Mrs. Lewis, of Ohio, prepared her husband's dinner with strychnine, an unexpected visitor ate it, and the result was very unsatisfactory to all but Mrs. Lewis.

-A horse exhibited in Dublin, not long ago, had a large epileptical development of the phalangeal bones, if the Irish papers are to be believed.

-The workmen surveying the channel of the Penobscot below Bangor were bored through sandbars more than fourteen feet. At the rate the river is filling up Bangor will soon be an inland city.

-A paragraph is going around saying that Pennsylvania has increased her coal output this year by more than half a million tons. This is a fancy. The fact is that she has diminished her coal production.

-There is a well laid out city, with municipal government, formed of runaway among the mountains of Brazil. They got women by raiding upon the settlements, and have just been discovered by the escape of one of their captives.

-A novel mode of "operating" in flour has been discovered in Lawrence, Mass. Children are sent round the streets begging a little flour, and as soon as they have obtained a bagful of headquarters, where it is packed into barrels and sold. The business was managed by Italians.

-The Princess Charlotte, says the Journal of the day, has just returned from the painting implements which she used in her wardrobe. She has finished a view of the Park of Versailles. Her husband appears in it on horseback, accompanied by some Mexican gentlemen.

-The Dutch peasants, who suffered most by the riderpest, have been inspired by their misfortunes to cultivate geese and all other sorts of poultry. Large numbers of these now occupy the fields where cattle used to graze, and the birds and eggs are destined for the London market.

-It is stated by the Paris correspondent of the London States that the French government has remitted to the Geneva authorities that it regarded the "Pence Congress" as a meeting of conspirators against France, and as an infraction of that neutrality which is the condition of the existence of the Swiss republic.

-The London Telegraph says: "The rivalry between north and south, not only as regards the wool trade, but also as regards special products or even dialects of Yorkshire and Somersetshire are in course of assimilation to each other. The rivalry between north and south is in course of being obliterated." -The Mobile Times gives a homoeopathic prescription for the yellow fever, an aqueduct with the "billion creature which (C) scribbles for a radical sheet, and as the creatura's virus is so potent, and so contagious, both will go to bed together, and poor Jack will never rise again!"
