Mr. Ritchie, from the Committee on Schools, reported an ordinance authorizing a contract with Ogden & Brother for the ercetion of a school house on Frankford road, near Somerset street, Twenty-fifth Ward. Agreed to.

The ordinance from Common Council regulating connections with the public sewers was taken up, but postponed, in order to wait for certain information from the Highway Department in regard to the cost for connections, and the revenue heretofore derived from this source.

Mr. Jones submitted a resolution directing the Chief Commissioner of Highways to inform and gutter-stone, the price per foot, and the quality of the stone to be used. It was stated by way of explanation for this resolution, that in the Twenty-first Ward the contractor of the cover. The brother of Arthur was present given at the American Mechanics' Hall, at Fourth and George streets, for the benefit of Daniel Dillon, the prize-fighter. Arthur Mullen, of the Seventeenth Ward, was present with a firlends. About a quarter of 9 o'clock a disturbance took place, during which, it is alleged that Mullen and his friends jumped upon John Carville, a constable of the Seventeenth Ward, and beat him severely. Carville, Wile down, drew a revolver and fired at Mullen is not seriously hurt, but Carville is not expected to recover. The brother of Arthur was the Almentan Displayed to recover. The brother of Arthur was the Almentan Displayed to Displayed the plaintiffs, and Messrs. George W. Biddle and Francis Hughes for the defendants.
