NEW PUBLICATIONS. HARPER'S BAZAR, A REPOSITORY OF
FASHION, PLEASURE AND INSTRUCTION. HARPER'S BAZAR, the publication of which has just been commenced by Harper & Brothers, is an Illustrated Weekly Journal, devoted to Fashion and House trated Weekly Journal, devoted to Fashion and Mouse-Left Literature.

It is the first Weekly Journal of Fashion ever published in the United States. By arrangements which the publisher have perfected, at great cost, with the most colorated European Fashion Journals—particularly with the well-known Bazar of Berlin-Hustrations of Fashions for each week of the year will appear in Harper's Bazar simultane onely with their publication in Paris and Berlin: an advantage which will belong exclusively to this Journal.

an advantage which will belong exclusively to the Journal.

In a country where three hundred millions of dollars are annually expended for dry goods to be transformed into articles of dress, trustworthy and practical instructions as to the most testful and coonomical methods of fashioning these articles become of the greatest value to American women. The Buzar will contain will and explicit instructions, with illustrations, which will emble every lady reeder to cut and make her own and her children's entire wardrobe, with a large portion of her husband's. Each alternate mumber will be accompanied with large l'attern Plates, containing from lorty to lifty full-sized patterns, applicable to every article of wardrobe made in the family, with the necessary directions for cutting and making. Similar illustrations and descriptions of fancy work will also be furnished. These patterns will be executed in Paris and Berlin, and will surpass anything of the kind hithorto produced in this country. Frequently an elegant Colored Tashion Plate will be presented with the paper. Practical descriptions will also be given of the fashions especially in vogue in New York—the centre of Fashion in America.

"Herner's Bazar." besides being the leading Fashion cal descriptions will also be given of the fashion casecally in vogue in New York—the centre of Fashion in America.

"Harper's Bazar," besides being the leading Fashion Journal in this country, will also aim to present before its readers the very best specimens of Household Literature, it will contain original and selected Scrial stories, Poetry, Novelettes, Articles on the Topics of the Day (excuiding Politics), on Books, Arts, Morals, Familiar Science, Education. Amusements, Hygiene, Edupette, Housekeeping, Gardening, with Homo and Foreign Gossip. No subject of household interest will be excluded from its columns.
In the first number of the "Bazar" will be commenced a Novel, entitled "The Gord and the Creese; or, The Brandon Mystery," by James De Mille. Esq, author of "The Dodge Club." This Novel has been read in manuscript by several of our most competent critics, who unanimously pronounce it, in politai interest and plot, variety of adventure, and graphic delineation of character, to be fully cqual to any of the novels of Wilkie Collins.

Hatper's "Bazar" will contain 16 follo pages, of the size of Hatper's "Weekky," printed on superfine calendered paper, and will be published weekly, at ten cents per single No., or $4 a year.
Ladies in the country will be supplied gratuitously through the mails with the first six numbers of Hatper's Bozar upon written aprilication to the Publishers. Tostage, five cents for three months.

Single subscribers will be supplied from the beginning to the end of the year 1868, which will complete the first volume, for the yearly price of 8;

An extra copy will be amplied gratificance; or six coples for $20.
