

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Miss Alice Cary is a clever woman and a good poetess. But being a woman and a poetess does not qualify her to write a man's love story. Her not quality here to write a man's love story.

"All the dreaming is broken through; Both with the dawn and undone I rue; Nothing is steadfast, nothing true; But your love for me, and my love for you."

"The time is weary, the year is old; The light of the lily burns close to the mould; The grave is cruel, the grave is cold; But the other side is the city of gold."

Harper's Pictorial History of the Great Rebellion is advancing steadily and well. We have received Nos. 21, 22, 23 and 24. These contain accounts, well written and well illustrated, of the Chattanooga, Vicksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg and Meridian campaigns.

Harper & Brothers have issued the novel of "Circé," which appeared in Miss Bradton's Magazine, Belgravia, where it was said to be by "Rabington White."
