MR. HAULLMAN'S COSTUME CONCERTS .- NOtwithstanding the short notice given of these interesting entertainments for Thursday and Friday nights, there is already a large demand for tickets. The great Tenor is so well known and appreciated in this city, that the mere announcement of his name excites the attention of concert goers.

Mile. Ackerman has never been heard here and great interest is felt in this her first appearance. Mad. Johannsen, is known and highly esteemed for her intrineic qualities as a singer. Wilhelm Formes, Jean Louis, G. Behrens, Carl Sentz, Mr. Habelman and pupil, make up with the ladies an attractive party, and the programme will be rich in selections from five or six favorite operas. Subscription lists are now open at the music stores. We are just reminded that Mr. Habelman will introduce at these concerts several new songs as yet unpublished, which were composed expressly for him by his friend Franz Abt, who sent them by Mr. Carl Wolfsohn, just returned to his home. SERENADE TO CARL WOLFSOHN. The return from Europe of this talented planist as made the occasion, last night, of a handsome and appropriate expression of esteem by his fellow professors. A number of literary and musical gentlemen, having met by appointment, walked in procession, headed by Carl Sentz and Jean Louis, to the residence of Mr. Wolfsohn. where Mr. Sentz's large orchestra being arranged, that gentleman assumed the baton, and some delightful music was performed in a most feeling manner. Mr. Wolfsohn, in reply to speeches of welcome, gave the company some account of his experience in travel, and intimated the programme of his expected work for the winter. Speeches were made by Messrs. Sentz, Louis, Northrop, Cunnington, Hassler, Emerick and others, and the occasion altogether was of an exceedingly pleasant character. We regret to learn that our esteemed towns man, Mr. Heman Allen, is about to leave Philadelphia with a view to settle in Chicago, enticing inducements having been offered him. Mr. Allen's studies in Europe have made him an able and accomplished musician, and as he is a gentleman from position and education, we feel that he will do credit to his native city wheresoever he may exercise the arduous duties of his professional calling.

Carl Sentz's Matinée for Thursday will be graced by the performance of Mozart's famous Jupiter Symphony, which is repeated at the almost unanimous request of those who heard it so admirably performed last week. New grand selections from Don Carlos, specially arranged for this orchestra, will be performed for the first time. The programme is a very rich one.

RICHINGS' OPERA TROUPE.—The opera of Norma was performed last evening in a most acceptable manner to a crowded house. This evening Linda di Chamounix will be presented with a strong cast. This is a favorite opera, and one in which this troupe is especially strong. A large audience, therefore, will probably be in attend-

JEFF. DAVIS.

Postponement of His Trial. [Washington Correspondence of the New York Herald.]
It is now quite definitely settled that Jefferson It is now quite definitely settled that Jefferson Davis will not be tried at the present November term of court. I have information from a most trustworthy source to the effect that the counsel for the Government have expressed a desire to hold the case over until the May term next ensuing, for the reason that they believe the trial should be presided over by Chief Justice Chase, instead of Judge Underwood, and this they think is in accordance with the sentiment of the country. The request of the counsel has been granted and the trial will be postponed until the May term. Several papers have erroneously alluded to R. H. Dana, Jr., of Boston, as one of the counsel for Jeff. Davis. Mr. Dana has been engaged on the part of the Government, in addition to the counsel already retained in behalf of the Government in this case. The services of General D. C. Wells, of Alexandria, Virginia, have been engaged. One of the reasons for wishing further delay in this important trial is said to be a desire on the part of the Government counsel to have a new indictment framed, that will be tree from certain defects which are to be found in the present one.

Most of our banks announce their semi-sonnal dividends at this time; the exceptions are the Bank of North America, the National Exchange Bank, and perhaps others that divide in January and July. The following are all that we have heard of as announcing dividends to-day, up to the time of going to press.

It is to be keped that the somewhat unfastering comments which have been made with reference to the appointment of Mr. Thornton will not have the effect of deterring that gentleman from accepting the post offered him, and in which he is well qualified to distinguish himself. Mr. Thornton was first—July 27, 1855—despatched on a special mission to Rio, and a moith later received his commission as Her Majesty's Envey Extraordinary and Mindoer Plempotentiary. He set himself resolutely to work to dispet the Milfeeling existing at Rio toward his countrymen, and which was the simple consequence of the unpardenable act of bullying of wisch ble of good-will as of offence, and Mr. Thornton, during his residence among them, has not only achieved popularity for himself, but has succeeded in inspiring the most amicable sentiments toward the country of which he is the representative. In choosing him to succeed by ir bred-crick Bruce at Washington, Lord Stanley has made a solection, the good effects of which can only be neutralized by injudicious attempts to prejudice the minds of Americans against the individual honored by Her Majesty's confidence, and already enjoying a well-cansed reputation not only for diplomatic ability, but for that high-bred courtery and those conciliatory manners which peculiarly characterize the best specimens of an English gentleman.

A meeting was held at Leeds on the 22d inst., under the presidency of Mr. Baines, M. P., to receive Mr. W. L. Garrison as a representative of the And-Slavery party in America. Mr. Baines said that Yorkshire had been associated for many years with the history of the emancipation of their enslaved fellow-creatures. The slave trade was abolished in a considerable measurathrough the instrumentality of Mr. Wilberforce when member for the County of York. Blavery itself was abolished mainly through the instrumentality of Henry Brougham, who was returned member for the County of York mainly in the Anti-Slavery interest. Thomas Bablington Macaulay was returned as one of the first members for Leeds expressly as the son of Zachary Macaulay, the advocate of the abolition of colonial slavery. The victory that had been obtained in America had been purchased by rivers of blood, and by a mountain of debt, but it was worth the price that had been paid for it. It was a victory not merely for America, but for the whole world.

An address embodying these scattments was presented to Mr. Garrison as the representative of the American Anti-Slavery Society.

Mr. Garrison, Mr. Illingsworth and others spoke, and resolutions of sympathy with the freedmen were passed. Second Corn Exchange Union Bank Union Bank.

Ratazzi on the monstrous incomsistency of keeping Garibaldi prisoner while his sons are fighting in Rome. The Premer replied, "For God's sake have a little patience; this forced imprisonment is the last concession we intend to office to Napoleon. There seems little chance of an amicable arrangement as it is. Garibaldi will forgive us when he knows how hardly we are pressed." The rumors shead this morning are many and confused. "Garibaidi has escaped;" "No, he hasn't;" "The P. and O. Garibaidi has escaped;" "No, he hasn't;" "The P. and O. teamer picked him up on the coast of Bardinia;" "No, there was a spy in the P. and O. effice, who betrayed the project to the Havas Agency, the Havas Agency informed the Government, the Government has telegraphed to the Cappera squaden, and Garibaidi is a prisoner for the third time."
