From Washington. (Special Despatch to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.) WASHINGTON, November 5.—The Ordnance Committee was in session this morning, but did not examine any witnesses. Capt. Wise, Chief of Ordnance, is sick, and could not appear. His clerk will be examined this afternoon. The Committee will make a thorough examination of the conduct of Capt. Fox. late Assistant Secretary of the Navy, relative to contracts for guns awarded his friends, at exorbitant rates. Parties connected with the transaction have been moned to appear before the Committee. The Alabama Convention meets to-day a

Montgomery. A private despatch received here indicates a good degree of harmony among the members. The Convention in Louisiana assem bles on the 23d and that of Virginia on December 3d. The election in Mississippi takes place to-day. Letters received, by the Union Congressional Committee say t friends of the Convention will carry the State by a large majority. Only one day has been so apart for voting. The time will be extended, however, if found necessary, so that the full vote may be polled. Up to the first of November the Union Congressional Committee have received over $37,000 from a partics. The entire sum has been expended in canvassing the Southern States. The largest amount was received from New York.

changed. -----The Massachusetts Election. Boston. Nov. 5 .- The weather is delightful, and voting is going on with energy. The town Hull voted 15 for Bullock (Rep.) and 27 for Adams (Dem.), for Governor. The vote in Boston at noon stood. Bullock. 2.090: Adams. 2.282. In Charleston and Cambridge at noon, Bullock as largely ahead of Adams. Between the proibition and license questions, the Legislative vote is greatly mixed up.

From South Carolina. CHARLESTON, NOV. 5 .- The official registratio returns from three-fourths of all the districts in this State shows that the blacks so far have a majority of 33,834. Only nine out of thirty-one listricts have white majorities. A large amount of obligations, exceeding half a million in the aggregate, due chiefly to Northern creditors. atured at the city banks yesterday, and were promptly paid.

Election Fracas and Murder in New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.-About 1 P. M. to-day Daniel Friel, a printer, had an altercation at the corner of Pearl and Franklin streets with Jeremiah Hannegan and Patrick Hayes about ome election matter. Pistol shots were exchanged, one of which took effect in the left temple of Friel, killing him nstantly. Hannegan and Hayes have been arested.

From Canada. TORONTO, November 5th .- An Ottawa des patch to the Leader says the Hon. Mr. Galt reired from the Government for reasons of a private nature. No one has yet been mentioned

The case of the propeller Georgian, which ha been the subject of much interest for some tin 1. L. WALINAVEIN, has been finally decided at Hamilton, a decree having been made in favor of the plaintiffs handing the vessel over to the United States. The bill against Jacob Thompson, defendant, was dismissed with costs.

The New York Election. NEW YORK, Nov. 5, 2.45 P. M .- The election is occeeding quietly. In a majority of the city Wards appearances indicate that the vote will be unprecedently heavy, the Democrats express themselves confident of having 60,000 majority in the city.

The police are vigilant in guarding against fraudulent voting, and several arrests have been made.

The Maryland Election. BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—The election is progres sing very quietly. Up to this hour, 1.30 P. M., the poll has been very light. The day is bright and pleasant.

The Health of Secretary Wells, WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 .- It is thought the health of Secretary Wells is somewhat improved. He has been confined to his bed for several days past with slow fever.
