Prayer was then offered by G. W. Leonard.

This was followed by addresses by Rev. Samuel Mehaffey, of Ohio, and Dr. Armstrong of this city. The speaker said that it must be apparent to all Christians that sin was abroad in the leand, that God's law were being pulled down. He exhorted those present to use their united influence in doing good, and in an earnest endeavor to scatter the truth among the masses. In union there is strength; he hoped, therefore, the objects desired by the Convention might be attained.

Riebert Carter, Esq., of New York, then led in prayer. Rev. E. B. Cross, of Baltimore, followed in an earnest appeal to the Convention for unity of action in regard to the dayancement of the principles which they had assembled to advance.

They were present, not under the command of a Pope, or any other earthly being, but acknowledging only one leader, the Lord Jeans. Let us then feel that in Him we have a sure guide, and if faithful, will be sure to gain the desires which we have met to consummate. Rev. Mr. Sawyer, of East Tennessee, next took the floor. At the close of his remarks the Convention united in singing a portion of the 145d Psalin.

The hour of eleven o'clock having arrived, the Chair called on the Elders to take part in the exercises; in response to which Mr. Sawyer, of Cincinnati, Ohio, led in prayer. He was followed by Mr. Evans, from Ohio, who advocated, in strong ferms, the idea of union. Bishop Morris presided at the services. The hymn, "With steady towers and bulwarks strong," was sung in opening, and a prayer was made by Rev. A. Mandell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Madison. Rev. Dr. Hare, of New York, read from the Scriptures the second chapter of the recond Epistle to Timothy.

Bishop Simpson then made an address, in which he extended hearty congratulations to the friends of ministerial education, and to the founder of the institution.

He referred to the fact that there are in attendance representatives from twelve conferences, and that all of the Bishops of the
