A PHOTOGRAPH OF BEDFORD STREET.-Rev. J. D. Long, the Bedford street missionary, sends us the following interesting items in reference to the the following interesting items in reference to the condition of affairs in that locality: "Bedford street, noted for poverty and crime above all other streets in Philadelphia, is only three squares long, running from Fifth to Eighth and between Shippen and South streets. Thousands of intelligent citizens have never seen Bedford street, which is far worse to-day than the Five Points in New York. We have recently visited the Five Points and know what we affirm. Bedford street is not creditable to the Christianity, the civilization and humanity of our great city.

anity, the civilization and humanity of our great anity, the civilization and humanity of our great city.

"In order to enlist the co-operation of the generous and good among us for its reformation we propose to photograph in a series of sketches the tenements, habits and employments of the color of the tenements in the street and vicinity, setting down nothing in malice or aught extenuating. If the number of persons was taken at twelve If the number of persons was taken at twelve eclock, any night, including the dark alleys extending in every direction, it is our opinion that three thousand could be enumerated. It is true that some persons would be counted that are not permanent residents, as in the case of an individual who was recently relieved of eleven hundred dollars in this locality, and of two young men from an interior city who also lost a goodly sum of money. Since I have been in the Mission the following case occurred: A well-dressed man, on an intensely cold night, the street covered with snow, entered one of the lowest dens in the neighborhood. In the language of the bummers, he was called an 'angel'—that is, he was a fit subject for plunder and robbery. The female amazons surrounded him, reduced him to a condition of nudity, expelled him into the land waluables. From whence this man came or where he fied has never been ascertained. I suppose he has a low opinion of Bedford street, and is not among the supporters of the mission."

THE FRANKLIN INSTITUTE.—It is to be regretted that the course of Scientific Lectures inaugurated with such triumphant success by Professor Morton two years ago, has not been followed up cach season by similar exhibitions. They were very instructive and very entertaining, and the Academy of Music filled to its utmost capacity every night, showed that this was the opinion of every night, showed that this was the opinion of the public generally. We were sorry that the plan of delivering such lectures was not followed out yearly. We feel this the more after attending some of the experiments made by Professor Morton at the Franklin Institute, pre-Professor Morton at the Franklin Institute, preliminary to the public course of lectures on Light, to be commenced on Tuesday night. The illuminated fountain was a most beautiful exhibition. A clear stream of water passes out into a richly chased glass goblet, but it falls, now like so much liquid gold—now like so much ruby wine, and as it sparkles in the goblet reminds one of the wondrous draughts which the deities of Olympus were supposed to quaff. The most one of the wondrous draughts which the deities of Olympus were supposed to quaff. The most novel and extraordinary ciforts also were produced by means of the immense lenses and powerful lights employed by the Professor. We feel very sorry that so few of the hundreds who would be delighted and instructed by the exhibition will probably be able to find accommodation in the lecture-room of the Institute, which, though large, is not at all equal to the necessities though large, is not at all equal to the necessities

FIRE.—This morning, about half-past four o'clock, a fire broke out in a dwelling-house at Manilla and Stewart streets, First Ward, owned mannia and stewart streets, First ward, owned by Mr. Vincent and occupied by Mr. Craig. The roof and upper story were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1,000 uppen which there is an in-surance of $300. The roofs of two adjoining houses were burned off, and the occupants suf-fered by having their furniture damaged by houses were burned off, and the occupance houses were burned off, and the occupance houses by having their furniture damaged by water.

A man was arrested on suspicion of having fired the premises. He is held to await an investigation by Fire Marshal Blackburn.
When the fire was discovered a policeman went to the Meyamensing Hose House to give the alarm, but was not allowed to enter, and was informed that the company was out of service, and so was the fire alarm box.

CONCERT AND FAIR FOR A WORTHY OBJECT. A grand complimentary Concert and Fair for the benefit of Misses Hildreth and Lynch, former pupils of the Pennsylvania Institute for the Blind, will be held at the Assembly Buildings, Tenth and Chestnut streets, on Tuesday and Wednesday of the present week. The fair will be open during the day (free of charge,) and the concerts will take place upon the evenings of the days named. The beneficiaries are two blind young ladies who are striving to support themselves notwithstanding their affiliction. Those who would enjoy good music at a trifling expenditure, and at the same time aid a worthy object, are now afforded an opportunity.

An Excellent Gampany. The attention of benefit of Misses Hildreth and Lynch, former

An Excellent Company .- The attention of the public is called to an advertisement in another column which demonstrates the excellence of the Knickerborker Life Insurance Company and the advantages to be derived from insuring in it. The marked and brilliant success of this company in the past is due in a large measure to the able management of Mr. Erastus Lyman, its executive, and also to Mr. Paul, who has conducted the business for years past in the solest and most skilful manner. Our readers will find it to their advantage to consider carefully the terms offered by the Knickerbocker.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—Jacob Latch and James Dougherty were arrested last night for having beaten Theddy Harkenstein, a French Canadian, at Kelley's tavern, at Thirty-ninth and Market at Kelley's tavern, at Thirty-finith and market streets. Hackenstein was attacked with porter bottles, and also had his head cut with a knife. He was badly injured, and was conveyed to the Hospital The alleged assailants had a hearing before Alderman Mault this morning, and were held in $2,000 bail. Kelley, the proprietor of the tavern, was held in $1,000 bail, to answer the charge of keeping a disorderly house. charge of keeping a disorderly house.

Robbertes.-The auction dry goods store of Stern & Bro., No. 519 North Second street, was entered on Saturday night by forcing open a back window with a jimmy. Goods amounting to $150 in value were carried off. to $150 in value were carried off.

On Saturday night the hat store of D. B. Newcomer, No. 401 North Third street, was robbed of caps and furs valued at about $200. The thieves got into an entry leading to the upper part of the building, and lowered themselves to the store through the hatchways, which had been left over.

FREEDMEN'S MEETING .- A meeting of the Women's Branch, F. R. A., will be held at their rooms, No. 711 Sansom st., to-morrow at 11 o'clock, A. M. Mrs. Harper, who has just returned from the South, will be present, and will give an account of her visit among the Freedmen.

ABOUT A Dog .- Joseph Robinson and Jerome Jacobs were before Alderman Mauli upon the charge of perjury. It seems that Mark Myers, cnarge of perjury. It seems that Mark Myers, residing in West Philadelphia, found a setter dog and advertised the animal. The defendants called at the house of Myers, claimed the dog, and swore to his identity, but refused to pay for the advertisement. Subsequently a man named Montague proved that the dog belonged to him. The accused were held for trial.

Ban Boys.—Three boys, named Jacob Filles, Pat. McGahen and Martin McGahen, were arrested yesterday afternoon for breaking into a cake stand at Eighteenth and Walnut streets, and stealing therefrom cakes and candies to the value of $15. They acknowledged having broken into the same place on election night and carried off a number of articles. Alderman Patchel held the juvenile thieves for a further hearing.

ON A STRIKE. The journeymen cigar-makers of the city are now on a strike. In some instances an advance of thirty per cent. on the old prices is demanded. Nearly all of the manufacturers refused to accede to the demands of the men, and the latter quitted work. There are about two thousand hands altogether in the INTERESTING ANNIVERSARY.—The Sabbath Schools attached to the Broad Street Baptist Church celebrate their Twenty-third anniversary to-morrow evening. Rev. Dr. Magoon, of Albany, and Rev. Dr. Henson, late pastor of the church, are among the speakers who will be present. The occasion will be one of great interest to the congregation and friends of the church.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT .- A negro named George W. Smith was caught in the act of stealing sugar from a freight car, which was standing on the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Forty-first street. He had broken the lock off of the door. Smith was taken before Alderman Maull and was committed to prison.

A REBEL RAM .-- A rebel ram, formerly called "The Lady Davis," arrived at Reed Street wharf vesterday in tow of the tug America. She was lately sold in Norfolk, and was purchased by a number of gentlemen belonging to this city.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE THEATRES.—Mr. Edwin Forrest will appear this evening at the Walnut in his famous personation of "King Lear." At the Arch the drama of Surf still remains upon the stage and attracts large crowds. Mrs. D. P. Bowers will appear at the Chestnut to-night in a new version of Marie Antoinette, with handsome scenery, &c. The American offers a miscellaneous bill this evening.

chis evening.

RIGHINGS' OPERA TROUPE.—This evening the favorte opera of Martha will be produced at the Academy of Muslc with a fine cast. Miss Richings's company have acquired considerable celebrity in this opera, and a crowded house whenever they perform it is an assured fact.

Hassler's Concerts.—This afternoon the first of Hassler's concerts will be given at Concert Hall.

Concert Hall.—Professor Macallister, the celebrated magician, will give the first of his gift exhibitions at Concert Hall this ovening.

Philadelphia Opera House.—A most attractive programme is offered for this evening at this pleasant little theatre. Mr. Budworth will appear in some of his most laughable delineations, while Eph Horn and Frank Moran will indulge in those Ethiopian eccurricities for which they are so famous. Songs, dances, burlesques, farces, and first-rate coundrums, good gags and racy local hits will, of course, be interspersed among the leading features of the entertainment in agreeable profusion.

ELEMENT STREET OPERA HOUSE.—Messrs. Carn-agreeable profusion.

ELRVENTH STREET OFERA House.—Messrs. Carneroses & Dixey will present this evening a laughable burlesque entitled Mac's Fishing Party, which contains some excellent local hits and plenty of humor. In addition to this, burlesque Italian opera will be given every night in the style for which this establishment is famour. There will be also extravaganzas, forces, speech-making, singing, dancing and a medley of other good things presented.

BLITZ.—Signor Blitz will give an entertainment this BLITZ.—Signor Blitz will give an entertainment this evening at Assembly Buildings.

REVENUE JOKES -- An intelligent revenue assessor in Donega, Pa., arrested and seized the stock of a grocer who had only a retailer's license for, selling larger turnips than the average without cutting them up. He thought the man ought to have a license as wholesale dealer. The immense quantities of superior coal sold by Mr. W. W. Alter, at his yard, Ninth street, below Girard avenue, and at the Branch Office, corner of Sixth and Spring Garden streets, entitle him to be considered a wholesale dealer, but you can buy the smallest amount at low prices.
