seven principles of the Democracy, the "five loaves and two small fishes," there would be an amount of bottled wrath and spite to be vented upon Union men, which would call out all the meanness and ferocity of the pure Democracy. The Maryland rebels are naturally very hungry, and they have made a rush for the flesh-pots of Baltimore wonderful to behold. The wretched being who for his sins has been appointed Mayor, is besieged by the ravenous horde of rebel office-seekers, who, fairly pack the streets around his office, howling for their prey, and he is at his wits' ends to know how to satisfy their clamor. One truly Democratic device has been concocted for the purpose of ameliorating the sufferings of progressing rapidly, and a couple of hundred workmen are employed upon it. Here is a shance not to be overlooked. Accordingly, payment to the contractors is to be stopped, and the contracts broken, in order to give them to Democrats, and to manufacture thereby political capital. What is done in Baltimore will be done here, whenever the people shall be foolish enough to put the reins in Democratic hands. In every way in which the public treasury can be rapidly bled, and the tax-paying community mulcted, the hungry Democracy will repay themselves for their long fast. And, in their eagerness to obliterate the deep disgrace of ir complicity with the rebellion and their opposition to every loyal movement which the people of Philadelphia made during the war, they will efface every record which they can reach, which reminds them of their shame. It will be a very costly and a very humiliating thing for Philadelphia if the Republican party, by its own stupid internal dissensions, ever resigns to the present sham-Democracy the control of the city or of the State. Dear Sir—As an act of gratitude to you, as well as for the advantage of ANY who may read this, I wish to say that my daughter has derived great relief and benefit from the use of your "MALT EXTRACT." Bhe has been ill for allong time, suffering (I believe) from consungtion, seeneral debitity, loss of blood and strength, for which she has been treated by several physicians without any successful result. It was with some misgivings, then, that I followed the advice of the well-known Ur JOHN W.

MIYCHELL to try your "Extract," but I am pleased to make the admission that from its use she has received great relief, and seems to be RECOVERING her HEALTH and strength. Ehe feel: compelled to take it continuity, for if she misses but one day she suffers considerably, and there is a relapse of her old complaint and a return of physical weakness, you are at liberty to make what use you see fit of this letter, and I shall be pleased at any time to testify personally (at the above address) to the valuable properties of your preparation, which should be universally known as a WONDERFUE REMEDY.

A Drunken Mistake.—A case showing a rather funny conclusion of a "drunk" was heard yesterday before Alderman Fitch. A German was charged with breach of the peace. On Monday night he got too full of lager. He was on described as the last of a long list of brilliant and novel experiments, and pictures of the former sold at 105%. The latter were steady at 101% for the old issues. Bank shares were held with great confidence and the offerings were unimportant. City sold at 71—an advance, and Girard at 56. The only sale of Passenger Railway shares was of Green and Coates Streets at 31. Hestonylle closed 10% bid.

Smth, Randolph & Co., Bankers, 15 South Third street, quote at 11 o'clock, as follows:Gold, 139%; yesterday before Alderman Fitch. A German was charged with breach of the peace. On Monday night he got too full of lager. He was on Girard avenue, and started for his home in the vicinity of Twelfth and Wood streets. When he got to Eleventh street he turned up instead of down, and finally got into Jefferson street. On the latter street, near Twelfth, there is a confectionary store resembling one which adjoins the house of the German. In front of the store there was a wagon, and three men were engaged in packing boxes into it. The inebriated Teuton mistook the men for thieves, and made a furious charge upon them, selzing them by the throats. par; 7-30'8; 2d Series, 105% 105%; 105% 105%; 2d Series, 105% mistook the men for thieves, and made a furious charge upon them, selzing them by the throats.
