ELEGANT DRY GOODS AT A SACRIFICE. — Read the attractive announcement of Messrs. Edwin Hall & Co., in another column, to-day. The frush for the splendid lines of fine imported dress goods at their spiendid innes of the large street, is unprecedented. For several days past their spacious salesrooms have been a literal bazaar of elegance and fashlon, and the throng of purchasers embraces the first familles of our city. Everybody is evidently willing to buy good goods cheap, if they can do so. Edwin Hall & Co.'s is the place to do it. Their immense stock is not excelled in richness and extent by any other in the country, and the fact that there must be an entire closing out of it has made: extraordinary reduction in prices a necessity. Their stock, while rich and complete in every department, is pre-eminently so in all kinds of silks, dress-goods, shawls, cloths, French poplins, of all the choicest colors and shades, silk cloak velvets, gros graines, taffetas, Lyons velvets, etc. Their store is now open and ready for business at 8 o'clock every

E. G. Whitman & Co.—As the weather grows colder, and the holiday season approaches, the mind naturally reverts to confectionery, and confectionery naturally suggests the name of E. G. Whitman & Co.. No. 518 Chestnut street, below Fourth. These gentlemen are now getting up some of the trarest triumphs in their line of business, and if visitors to the great French Exposition would visit their establishment they would find their Bon-bons and other standard articles are fully up to the best that Paris can produce. As to such specialties as roasted Jordan Almonds, Cream Fruits, Chocolate preparations and Caramele, they leave the French far in the back ground. E. G. Whitman & Co. are as scrapulous about the perfect purity and wholesomeness of their confections as they are jealons of their purity.

In this Country we suffer more frequently from Neuralgia, Nerveache and other painful nerve affections and prostration of the nervous system than almost from any other diseases. Hence the value of Dr. Torner's Tic-Douloureux, or Universal Neuralgia, Pill, which is a specific and complete anti-dote for all complaints of this nature.

What Shall I buy for a Christmas Gift

WHAT SHALL I BUY FOR A CHRISTMAS GIFT WHAT SHALL I BUY FOR A CHRISTMAS GIFT for my wife, sister, cousin, niece or "intended" (as the case may be), is the perplexing question as the Holldays approach. Now, we are happy to say we can answer this question for one and all. Buy one of those Beautiful Combination Sewing and Buttonhole Machines, at the S. W. corner of Eleventh and Chestnut streets. Nothing could be more appropriate for the purpose. Elegance and usefulness combined, and the price within the reach of all.

THE VERY HIGHEST PRIZE, "The Cross of the Legion of Honor," was conferred upon Mr. Goodwin, representative of the Elliptic Sewing Machine, at the "Exposition Universelle," Paris, 1867, thus attesting their superiority over all other machines. Salesrooms, 920 Arch street, Philadelphia.

Fashionable Hats and Bonnets. — Ladies making their purchases in this line will please bear in mind that the most elegant stock of Hats and Bonnets, for both ladies and misses, is offered by Messrs. SHOOTING STARS.— Meteoric showers are promised us in profusion by the astronomers this winter, but people don't have the same confidence in astronomers promises as in other people's, and it will be some time before they catch us a-napping again, or rather disturbing our naps to look out for stars to fall. The promise that everybody shall be pleased who buy their Clothing at Charles Stokes & Co.'s, First-class Clothiers, under the Continental, is much easier believed.

GRAND POPULAR MOVEMENT

TO ERECT THE

GETTYSBURG ASYLUM

UNDER A SPECIAL

Charter from the State of Pennsylvania, Passed March 6, 1867.

Invalid Soldiers.

AN APPEAL TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

The object of this Association is to provide, by public exertion, a NATIONAL HOME for our Disabled Scidiers, to erect an asylum for those, who, in their patriotism have served their Country at the expense of their health and happiness: who, in the battle for the Nation's life were mained, and are now incapable of woraing for their own maintenance. France has her Hotel Des Invalides where rest the ashes of the great Napoleon; England her Greenswich and Chelsea Hospitals, the former being one of the finest architectural structures ever devoted to Charty. Russia, Prussia, and in fact, nearly all European Countries have magnificent retreats for the unfortunate Soldiers—Monarchies provide for the alleviation of the suffering caused by war, but free, prosperous fixpustican America has no place for her crippled and sick soldiers but the county poor house, or the side-walks of her crowded Cities. These noble patriots left happy homes to save our cammen Country in the hour of her deep distress. We pledged to them our lasting gratitude, and now those who are dependent look to us in their rutter need to redeem those pledges—they have performed their part—we enjoy the result of their sacrifices—we must not be recreast to our obligations. Left us cach devote but a single dollar to this purpose, and the Gettyaburg Asylum will afford the Soldiers a Home and our Country will be honored by the noble Institution.

Country will be honored by the noble Institution.

THE LAND HAS BEEN PURCHASED

By this Association, and Ten Thousand Dollars have already been paid towards the preservation of the BattleGround—about thirty acres (adjoining the site of General Meade's Headquarters) have been set apart for the uses of the Asyllum. Meades Headquarters) have been set apart to the the Asylum.

Lexington Avenue, Niw York, Octol 1 t. 1885.

Having labored for three years to orect a Home for our Crippled Veterans, and having passed a bill for that purpose in the New York Legislature incorporating some 100 of our best citizens as Directors,—but under which bill no action has been had, from that time to this,—and knowing the great and crying necessity of the case, the shame of leaving our disabled veterans to staye or beg, I hereby most cordially endorse your outerprise, and it shall have all the aid of my tongue, pen and influence. Very truly yours, Fully sympathizing, with your great object. I tender you, gratuitously, the services of my Full Orchestra, on the occasion of your Festival, at Irving Hall.

THEODORE THOMAS. [From the Postmaster-General of the United States.] I recommend to all Postmasters that they shall aid this truly benevolent and patriotic enterprise.

A. W. RANDALL.

Being satisfied with the integrity of your enterprise, we cheerfully consent to display your diamonds at our establishment.
