DISTRICT COURT-Judge Stroud.—Dennis Buckley vs. Martin Comber. An action to recover for a loan of $1,325, alleged to have been made to defendant in 1865. The son of plaintiff alleged that he was present when the money was loaned, and that defendant accepted it as a loan, and promised to give his note when called upon so to do.

The defence denied the loaw. The defendant is a *on in law of plaintiff, and alleges that plaintiff had promised to give from $1,000 to $1,500 to any one who married his daughter. Defendant did marry her, and received the money in quertion as a gift. Since that time defendant's wife has died, and the plaintiff now sought to receive back the money, Jury out.

Only a few sma vessels—gunboats they might be called—are being built of iron frame with teak planking. Government has generally adopted iron as a building material, though I observed that it is unwilling to give uplhemp rope, as they use it on all their purchases. It appeared to me to be a fine establishment in every particular, the organization good, and the bread of excellent quality. From this department is supplied the mess furniture of all the officers and of the crew; and to the latter, also, provisions and small stores. From thence we proceeded to the naval hospital, where I made an inspection of its several departments with Captain Fatham and Surgeon Stewart. I observed that the principal point of difference between this and other hospitals I visited is that they use distinct buildings instead HUDSON'S HAY SABLE, MINK SABLE, MINK SABLE, AND AL ERMINE, CHINCHILLA, FITCH, &c., all of the latest styles, BUPERIOR FINISH, and at reasonable prices.
