RIGHTHOS OFERA TRUBES.—Mr. Wm. Castle will have a benefit this evening at the Academy of Music in the opera of Fea Diarole. To-morrow afternoon. The Lily of Killarner, will be given. There will be no evening performance on Saturday. THE CREATION.—It may safely be asserted that there has never been an Oratorio performance in Philadelphia so thoroughly successful as that given last night by the Handel and Haydn Society, at Horticultural Hall. "The Creation" has been sung by almost every musical society that has ever given concerts in Philadelphia, and the music is more familiar to our andicuces than that of any other oratorio. Last evening there was a combination of all the requisites for a perfect success. The orchestra was well balanced and judiciously posted, and played with unusual spirit and with excellent expression. The chorus was large, bringing out the full force of the Society, and evinced a high degree of careful training. The arrangement of the staging would be improved by increasing the grade, so as to bring the basses and tenors a little more for-

The solos were entrusted to Mme. Parepa-Rosh and Messrs, Geo. Simpson and A. R. Taylor, Madame Parepa is nowhere more completely at home than in oratorio, and her performance last evening was superb. At her first appearance there was an indication in manner of something having gone wrong behind the scenes, which was confirmed by her cutting "On Mighty Pens" and "Graceful Consort," But any little coldness of style thawed out almost with the first strains of the oratorio, and upon the first encore of "The marvellous works behold," Parepa gave way to Haydn's inspiration and sang with exquisite appreciaation of the music before her, and with all the rare powers of her beautiful voice, to the great delight of the whole audience.

Mr. Simpson was in capital voice, and sang throughout with that careful, conscientious accuracy which has made him one of the first oratorio singers in America. He was frequently and warmly applauded, and an encore of "In native worth" was demanded and given with great beauty of tone and expression.

Mr. Taylor is rapidly gaining ground in oratorio. His voice has much freshness and power, and continued practice and study, without which no singer can become an artist, will give Mr. Taylor a high reputation among American vocalists. Every one who heard him in oratorio last winter must have observed the improvement in style and tone last night. Mr. Taylor gave the audience a specimen of the compass of his voice by taking the lower D at the conclusion of the air, "Rolling in foaming billows," and again in a later passage, but the note was touched by a careful and elaborate effort, and did not greatly add to the general merit of his really good performance.

The concert began punctually at eight o'clock, and concluded before half-past ten, and there was much less than the usual annoyance from heedless people elattering out of the Hall during the final chorus. The andience owe the Society and its hard-working conductor, Mr. Carl Sentz, many thanks for one of the most agreeable entertainmens, in the way of sacred music, ever given in Philadelphia.

MENDELSSORS SOCIETY. - The thorough drilling given the chorus of the Mendelssohn by its able conductor, Mr. Jean Louis, leads us to expect a perfect performance. The orchestra is under Carl Sentz, and is too well known for its merits to require any further praise. Mr. Thunder, the accomplished planist, contributes one of Mendolssohn's fine concertos for the piano, with orchestra accompaniment. Mr. Habel-mann sings an entirely new ballad by Abt, "I Greet Thee." Mr. Harkins has a bass solo, and Mr. Sartori, Sr., introduces a violin solo by Spohr. The subscrip tion is going on actively, and a few tickets can be had from the members, as they cannot be sold publicly, the concerts being sustained by subscription only.

THE GERMANIA ORCHESTRA Will give their usual public rehearsal at the Musical Fund Hall to-morrow, at 11 A. M., with the following programme:

December 7th, the Germania Rehearsals will be given at the old and more convenient hour of half-past three in the afternoon.

CABL SENTZ'S MATINEE, yesterday afternoon, was an evidence of skill and ability on the part of the grand orchestra and appreciation on the part of the public. The taste for music may be regarded to be of a high character when such meritorious concerts as these are so well supported. The Symphony in G Minor was beautifully rendered. Mr. Sartori played his solo for violin with marked ability, but apparently suffered from nervousness. The overture to Fr Diarolo was never better performed. Mr. Sentz has no performance on Thanksgiving Day.

Meignes Concert.-The many friends of this learned theorist and able conductor are active in selling tickets, and a good many have already been disposed of. It will be an admirable concert. Mr. Jarvis plays a Mendelssohn Concerto in D Minor for piano and orchestra; Mr. Taylor and Mr. Louis sing two delightful songs; Messra. Thunder and the two Sartoris give a trio of Gade, and Carl Sentz's grand orchestra contribute overtures to Magic Flute and Rienzi, and Meyerbeer's "Flambeau Dance." Tickets are for sale at all the music stores.

COMPLIMENTARY CONCERT.-The grand compli mentary concert tendered to Mrs. Josephine Schimpf will be given at Concert Hall on Tuesday evening, December 3d. Miss Louise Solliday, Mr. Theodor Habelmann, Mr. Aaron R. Taylor, Carl Gaertner and Professor Thunder will appear, in addition to the talented beneficiare; and as the programme is a splendid one, a musical treat of no ordinary character may be confidently counted upon.

CONCLIMENTARY CONCERT.— This evening the complimentary concert tendered to Mr. Stephen Caffrey will be given at Mechanica' Hall, Fourth and George streets. A number of well-known and popular musicians will participate. The programme is a rich and varied one, and the musical performance will be supplemented by a Slam Trial for Murder, a very amusing burleaque, by members of the Washington Literary Association. We hope there will be a fail house on the occasion.

CRIME.

Murder Trial at Albanye

Albany. Thursday, Nov. 21.—A singular murder trial was concluded here this evening. Judson N. Palmer was indicted for murder in the second degree in killing Archibald Stevens in the town of Coeymans, in October last year. Palmer sought the hand of Stevens daughter, a girl aged 15; Stevens opposed the match, and threatened to chastise Palmer if he did not abandon the suit. An elopement and hasty marriage followed, and an Bour atter Stevens, who was in pursuit, came up with them near the house of a mutual friend. The young couple ran into this house, and hurrying into an uper room, fastened the door. Stevens soon buest open the door took men were armed), and struggle ensued, in which Palmer was considerably injured, and Stevens was shot dead. The trial was before Judge Peckham. After the gramination of several witnesses, neither counsel proposing to sum up, the counsel for the defence moved for the discharge of the prinoner wit out allowing the case to go to the jury. The District Attorney objecting, they did not have the first of the first of the prinoner wit out allowing the case to go to the jury. The District Attorney objecting, they did not have the sum of the prinoner wit out allowing the case to go to the jury. trict Attorney what he desired. That officer replied that he expected a verdict of guilty of manulaughter in some of the lighter degrees. The Court declined to send the jury back, but discharged them and the prisoner, and a verdict of "not guilty" was entered by order of the Court.

OITY NOTICES.

"THE ladies are like birds that are on the wing," said a humerous clerk to his employer, as a bovy of shopping damsels left the store. "Why so?" asked the proprietor. "Because it takes them a long time to settle upon their purchase (perches)," replied the clerk. It does not require any time to decide that the splendid family coal sold by W. W. Alter, Ninth street, below Girard avenue, and at the Branch Office, corner of Sixth and Spring Garden streets, is the best.

SAFETY RAILROAD SWITCH MAIN TRACK UNBROKEN.

I am now prepared to furnish railroads throughout the United States with my Patent Railroad Switches, by the use of which the MAIN TRACK IS NEVER BROKEN, and it is impossible for any accident to occur from the misplacement of switches.

The saving in rails, and the great saving in wear of the rolling stock, which is by this means provided with a level, smooth, and firm track at switches in place of the raush movable rails and the consequent severe blows level, smooth, and firm track at switches in place of the usual movable rails and the consequent severe blows caused by the open joints and battered ends, is a matter deserving the especial attention of all Railroad Companies. AS A MATTER OF ECONOMY ALONE this invention needs only to be tried to insure its adoption; but beyond the economy THE PERFECT IMMUNITY FROM ACCIDENT caused by misplaced switches is a subject not only of importance in respect to property saved from destruction, but it concerns THE property saved from destruction, but it concerns THE LIFE AND LIMB OF ALL TRAVELERS UPON I refer to the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, and to the New York and Haarlem Railroad Co. I am new filling orders for various other Railroad Com-panies, and I will gladly give any information in detail that may be desired. WM. WHARTON, Jr., Patentee,

Dear Sir—As an agt of gratitude to you, as well as fer the advantage of Aky who may read that we wish to say that my daughter has derived great refer and bonefix from the use of your "MALT EXTRACT." She has been general debitity, loss of blood and strungth, for whelm ask general debitity, loss of blood and strungth, for whelm ask general debitity, loss of blood and strungth, for whelm ask general debitity, loss of blood and strungth, for whelm ask general debitity, loss of blood and strungth, then, that I followed the advice of the well-known Dr. JOHN W. MITCHELL to try your "Extract," but I am pleased to make the admission that from its use the has sectived great relief, and seems to be RECOVERING her HEALTH and strength. She feels compelled to take it continually, for if ahe misses but one day she suffers considerably, and there is a relapse of hor eld complaint and a roturn of physical weakness. You are at liberty to make what they waluable properties of your preparation, which should be valuable properties of your preparation, which should be universally known as a WONDERFUL REMEDY.
