as a powerful auxiliary to all the great move-meats of his church, Dr. Wayland swayed an in-fluence of incalculable weight and extent. His long life of nearly seventy years was one of prodigious labor, and the memoir which his two sons now present is filled with the records of a ceaseless activity in the exalted work to which his energies were devoted. Co-pious extracts from his correspondence and other misces bring out all the characteristics of his writings bring out all the characteristics of his clear and profound mind, and contribute to form clear and profound mind, and contribute to form one of the best works of American religious biography yet presented to the public. The work should find a place in every good public and private library. Porter & Coates, 712 Sansom street, have just issued a very pretty series of juveniles, in uniform style, called the "Birthday Library." It consists of three new volumes by Miss McKcever, now well-known as a very successful and popular writer for children. A Certain Cure for

Scalds, Burns, Cuts, Wounds, &c.

BOARDING TWO GENTLEMEN CAN. BE ACCOMMODATED with Board in a private family, with breakfast and les. and dinner on Sundays, in the neighborhood of Forlar and Filteenth streets. PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1865. FRIERD BROWN: It gives me great pleasure to say to you, that your Ointment is such an article that there can be but praises bertowed upon it, when need and it becomes known. For you well recollect how dreadinly I was scalded in both legs by steam and hot water, so much so that the fiesh came off at least coschail inch in thickness and by the use of your Ointment, and that alone, in a few weeks I was entirely restored, and am new as well as ever; not a muche or leader contracted, and hardly a scar is left. There is no telling the amount of suffering it would relieve, if it was freely used in scalds or burns of any kind. By referring persons to me. I can give them 1 Respectfully, your friend. JOHN P.
