Mr. Farrigan observed the theft and gave chase.
After running for some distance he gained on Sharp, who, it is alleged, drow a knife and attempted to use it upon his pursuer. The latter yelled lustily for the police, and Officer Tyler captured Sharp. The prisoner was taken before Ald. Morrow, and was committed to SKATING.—The different skating parks about the city are now being put in order for the season. the city are now being put in order for the season. All have been greatly improved, and more accommodations are provided for both skaters and spectators. The weather during the past two days has been cold, and ice has formed freely in the gutters and upon small ponds, but it is not of a sufficient thickness to bear people. Should the cold anap continue there will no doubt be excellent skaling at the various parks in a few doys. On the meadows at the Almshouse grounds, the ice is already used by skaters.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERTY.—Two colored men named William Dutton and Sidney Wordreen, were charged with complicity in the robbery of were charged with complicity in the robbery of a man of a pocket book containing $400. A countryman was enticed into the house of the defendants in Goss Alley, last week, by some women and while there was relieved of his pocket book. The defendants, it is alleged, aided in the escape of the woman who committed the robbery. They were committed by Alderman Swift.

DOWNING'S AMERICAN CEMENT.-This excelient article is the best of its kind in the market. for the everyday uses of the household. It can be used to mend fractured furniture, glass, china, ornanents, and indeed any article that can be repaired with glue. It is in a liquid form, can be instantly applied with a brush, and it will not leave a perceptible mark. No family should be without a bottle of it.

LARCENY. - John Graces was before Alderman Heins on Saturday, upon the charge of the larceny of a coat containing papers valued at $1,000, from a house at Fifth and Oxford streets, about a week ago. The coat was found at the place where Graeff was arrested, but the papers were missing. The accused was held in $800 ball for trial.

Inciting to Rior.—Thomas Metcalfe was before Alderman Neill, and was held in $800 bail, to answer the charge of incling to riot. AMUSEMENTS.

The Theaters.—Mr. Edwin Adams will make his first appearance, this season, at the Arch to-night in the comedy Men of the Days. Mr. Adams enjoys great popularity among the play goers of this city, and his engagement will, in all probability, be very successful. At the Walnut The Lottery of Life is still on the programme, and will be given every night until further notice, with Mr. John Brougham in the leading character. Mile. Zoe, at the Chestnut, will appear to-night in the drama of Masankillo. The eraption of Moant Vesuvius will be represented upon the stage. The the American a number of new performers will appear this evening in a miscellaneous entertainment.

BLITZ—We are sorry to announce that the old favorite, Signor Blitz, has declared his determination to withdraw from the stage after the holidays. This is a matter of repret, not only because the Signor's enter-tainments grow more attractive every day, but also because he is a universal favorite, and has a multitude of filends who regard his temple of wonders as one of our institutions.

BUNYAN TABLEAUX.—This series of splendid paintings will be exhibited at National Hall this evening. The designs are by the most embient artists in this country. Messrs, Darley, Church, Kyle, Huntingdon, Cropsey, and others, having contributed to make these tableaux in every respect a most admirable and beautiful panorama of the eyeuts described in the Pilgrim's Progress.

ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE. The laughable burlesque Surf will be given at this opera house to-night. A number of other burlesques are announced, with extravegation, songs, dances, and the usual va-rieties belonging to the ministrel stage.

Pullapelphia Opera House.—A most attractive programme is offered for this evening at this popular establishment. Mr. — orth will appear in several twortic characters, and the members of the troupe will constitute the enstomary selections of vocal and interaction music, interspersed with humor, local interaction. Mrs. Language.

Mrs. Lanux...Mrs. Lander's splendid impersonation of "Mary Stuart" will be given at the Academy of Music this and to-morrow evenings, and as public enfocity has been excited in regard to it, there is every reason to anticipate a crowded house upon both nights. Gome illy informed critics have seen it to make objective to the contraction of the contrac tion to the historical accuracy of Mrs. Lander's cottume of white saffa in the last act of the play, seastlying that deep black would be more appropriate, and more in accordance with the facts. The truth is, however, that Schiller, the author of the dramt, expressly directs that a white costume shall be worn, and Mrs. Lander, in conforming with this direction follows the example of Rachel, who was the first and greatest interpreter of this part. The costume actually worn by Mary Queen of Scots at the time of her execution is said to have been of purple color, but authorities differ to such an extent that some latitude may be allowed to the actress, especially in view of the fact that the performance itself is sufficiently good to redeem any faults of costume.

Male Janausonek.—On Monday next this famous recress will make her debut at the Chestnut Siteet theatre. Tickets will be for sale by Wednesday, next at Willing Music Store.
