Much has already been done to secure these desirable results, but very much more remains to be accomplished. The present action of the City Commissioners should be thoroughly and vigorously prosecuted, and, in the meantime, the existing volunteer regiments should keep themselves more before the public. Frequent parades of handsomely uniformed and well-drilled props have a very inspiring effect upon the public mind. Like all other advertising, it pays well. -----THE INDIANA DELEGATION. Mr. Julian, of Indiana, is a quiet, grave, almost solemn man, representing a contituency in which the members of the Society of Friends form a large preponderance. Deliberate in judgment, sober in manner, mature in experience, Mr. Julian would be accounted a "weighty Friend" anywhere mong the followers of George Fox. The condemnation which such a man passes upon another is not to be lightly esteemed, and even President Johnson, case-hardened and even President Johnson, case-hardened as he may be to the ordinary attacks of his adversaries, cannot be insensible to the terrible blows which the member from. the Fifth Indiana District inflicted upon him yesterday. The inflexible conviction of truth and duty, which Mr. Julian declared had controlled the Indiana deligation in its vote in favor of impeach-ment, cannot fail to carry with it great menl, cannot fail to carry with it great believed that the true path of statesmanship

A speech like that of Mr. Julian's, yester-

The attempts made to organize expeditions in Curaces against President Cabral have failed, for want of funds to carry them out. Small bands of revolutionists are flooking into Meytl, badly provided with arms and ani-munition. The attempt recently made by General Montes to escape from the custody of President Salnave, failed. Many parties, who were suspected of having been engaged in the attempts to get up a revolu-tion in Hayti, have been arrested by order of President Salnave.
