UNPROVOKED ASSAULT.-Alderman Massey had before him, last evening, an Irishman named Peter Seam, charged with assault and battery. Seam was at a house enargo with assault and Wood streets. A colored man was sent to the house on an errand, and while he was at the door Sgam, without provocation, struck him a violent Seam, who was about to renew the assault, when he was arrested by Officer Harrar. The accused was held in $600 ball for trial.

Snow Storm.-For a day or two a snow storm has been brewing. yesterday there were several slight spits. Since daylight this morning the snow several slight spite. Since daylight this morning the snow has been falling thick and fast. The pellets are small but hard; and sting very unpleasantly when they strike the face and hands. A strong northeast wind is prevailing and causes the snow to drift considerably. At the present writing there is no appearance of a discontinuance of the storm, but every indication that there will be fine sleighing.

FIRE AND NARROW ESCAPE. This morning. about half-past twelve e'clock, the clothing store of Mrs.
Lister, No. 505 Hurst street, was discovered to be on first.
The flames were extinguished before any serious damage had been done. The dense and sufficeating smoke caused by burning clothing cut off the retreat of Mrs. Lister, who was seeping in the upper part of the building at the time of the fire, and she was taken out of the second-story window by the firemen.

GENERAL BUTLER says if a man's house is worth $10,000 to day, with the National debt at $2,500,000,000, when the debt is reduced one-half then your house is worth $20,000: and ergo, it the dobt is reduced to nothing, then your house is worth $2,500,000,000. These are big figures, because we are dealing with big things (the national debt and General Entier); but to come to small figures, we would say that a small sum will buy a winter suit of Clothes at Chas. Stokes & Co.'s first-class Clothing House, under the Continental. One visit will convince.
