PROCEEDS OF CAPTURED PROPERTY. On motion of Mr. SHERMAN, the Senate took up the bill under discussion yesterday in regard to the pro-ceeds of captured and abandoned property. The question was stated to be on Mr. Edminds'

The papers in the Fitz John Potter case were trans-mitted to the Senate: Considerable amasement was caused by reading a request from General Franklin to have stricken out a remark of his, "that he would not believe Generals Pope and Roberts under oath," and to substitute the words "would not believe two of tac witnesses of the government nuder oath." The Senate, at about four o'clock, went into execu-tive committee, and soon afterwinds adjourned.
