CITY BULLETIN.

The Streethno. The snow-storm of Thursday, covering the earth as it did with a hard fey surface, presented an unusually fine opportunity to those who were partial to gliding along to the sound of "the sliver bells." But the heavy snow of Saturday, falling upon this excellent foundation, rendered the sleighing absolutely perfect. All over the country where the roads were prefected from the fury of the winds which, for three or four days, have been to the game wording the snow, piling it up in drifts against the fences, and hurrying it in clouds across the fields, the sleighing was good. Yesterday those who had teams of their own, or sufficient cash to procure them from the livery stables, turned out, and upon the streets and in the suburbs of the city the scene was of the Nicolson. Payement presented a smooth even surface, covered to the depth of several inches with snow, and it was througed with fast borses and entier sleighs, which made the inost rapid time when they struck this tine road. There was as great diversity of opinion regarding the merits of the various routes leading from the city as there was variety of equipages. Frankford road, Oxford moad and the various hanes were each thronged by swift flying vehicles of every description, and the various popular stopping places along the routes were thronged by cold and hungry men, who had no fear of the Sunday Ilquor law before their eyes. The Abbey, Markley's, Cole's, Vissa-hickon Hall, Leg Cabin, Arnold's, and a hundred other places, each had its throng of visitants bent upon "warming up" in the customary manner. Men who could not procure dashing double teams, large sleighs and plenty of buffalo robes, or elso fast horses face, presented an unusually fine opportunity to

up" in the customary manner. Men who could not procure dashing double teams, large sleighs and plenty of buffalo robes, or elso fast horses and snug cutters; satisfied themselves with less show but equally available vehicles, or perhaps with an improvised arrangement of dry goods boxes on runners. On the lower end of Broad street, upon Passyunk road and Point Breeze road, the sleighing was not so good as in some other localities, because of the heavy drifting.

good as in some other localities, because of the heavy drifting.

Everybody appeared to be enjoying themselves immensely. The juveniles had a fine time of it. Their fun consists in snow-balling sleighers, and they carried on their operations yesterday with great spirit. At almost every corner the sleighers were sure to get a shower of snow balls. There were several runaways in sonsequence, and numerous upsets from various other causes, but as far as gould be ascertained, after diligent inquiry, no person was scriously injured. To-day the sleighing has improved, the sum making very little inroad upon the snow. The weather is charming, and during the afternoon and evening the carnival of the sleighers will be continued with undiminished the sleighers will be continued with undiminished

THE LATE ENECUTIONS IN ENGLAND-MEETING OF IRISHMEN IN THIS CITY .- A meeting of Irishmen, without regard to party, was held on Sua men, without regard to party, was held on our day afternoon at No. 12 South Broad street, to take action upon the late exciting news from Ireland, and to express their indignation at the conduct of the British Government in executing the Fenians, Allen, Gould and O'Brien. It was the first time that the Fenians of both wings of the organization in this city showed a willingness the Fenians, Allen, Gould and O'Brien. It was the first time that the Fenians of both wings of the organization in this city showed a willingness to unite. Dr. Carroll occupied the chair, and speeches were made by John M. Moriarty and others, counselling harmony and united action amongst all Irishmen of all creeds and classes, and begging forgetfulness and forgiveness for all past blekerings. It was resolved unanimously that suitable funeral obsequies in memory of Allen, Gould and O'Brien take place on New Year's Day—that the whole strength of the organization turn out in solemn public parade, as well as all other societies sympathizing with the martyred dead, and that all expenses of hearses, carriages, music and mourning-badges be defrayed equally by both branches of the Brotherhood. A vote of thanks was offered to Simon Gartland, undertaker, for gratuationally offering the use of his hall, cofflins, hearses and carriages for the proposed demonstration. A committee of twenty-six persons was then appointed to carry out the objects of the meeting. Communications from all other societies, political clubs and beneficial societies will be received at the hall on next Sunday, or by Mr. John Brennan, Mr. Finn, Dr. Carroll and Mr. Nash, who will assign them positions in the parade. will assign them positions in the parade.

THE SNOW STORM .- The snow, which commenced to fall early on Saturday morning, continued to descend steadily during the entire day, and did not cease until about eight o'clock in the and did not cease until about eight o'clock in the evening. The flakes were not like those of the previous day, being larger and heavier, and as they reached the ground they laid very compactly. At the conclusion of the storm the snow was about two inches in depth. The passenger railways all experienced considerable difficulty in running their cars, and on some of the lines operations were stopped early in the evening. With double teams the cars got along pretty well. The Philadelphia and Darby road has embetituted sleighs for the cars, and is doing a very good business, as people now have a cheap mode of taking a sleigh-ride. Yesterday the weather was clear, but cold, and the sun did not have much effect upon the snow. To-day the sun is more powerful, and the slewalks-begin to get sloppy in consequence of the thaw. The trains coming into the city are all running on time.

DEAR SIR: I was agreeably surprised to see by the papers that the genuine HOFF'S MALT ENTRACT has been introduced into Amorica. This acquidition is of the greatest importance for consumptives. My cowin, the Counselor of Medicine, Dr. Sandersleben, informed me a long time ago of its astonishing remedial properties; he reduced the General State of the Stat ong time ago of its ascensing remediate posterior, or a friend suffering from disease of the lungs, and obtained the best results from their use, etc.

I would like to try it now on my friend and colleague, Dr. Caine, who is suffering from suppuration of the left lung, in conjunction with spasmodic asthma. Please forward me one dozen, and if, as I do not doubt, your resumest Most Extract does him good, the reputation of nowned Mult Extract does him good, the regulation of his single case will lead to the universal adoption in our place, where so many consumptive people are residing.
