The Paller (in plain song) was admirably sung, while the "Veniti," "Benedletus," "Magnificat," and "Gloris in Excelsis," were in pure Gregorian chanting. The "Te Doum" used was composed by the organist of the church (Mr. Francis Barrington), and, for a Christmas service especially, was in excellent taste. The beautiful Christmas hymi was followed by an excellent sermon from the Rev. Mr. Wattson, after which was sung the "Adeste Fideles." We were very favorably impressed with the manner in which Mr. Barrington accompanied the choir, and the Voluntary and Offertory were played so well that we could not but regret he had so poor an organ on which to do justice to his selections, which were from Handel and Mendelssohn. We would suggest that the choir—though they did well—might be improved with more strength; but taking it in all, we think Mr. Barrington has every reason to congratulate himself on the musle of Christmas day. decorated on Christmas Day in a beauti-

AMUSEMENTS.

The Hanlons. The Hanlon troupe gave another of their very remarkable performances at the Academy last night, to one of the largest audienees of the season. The entertainment is original, novel and well worth seeing. It differs from others of the same general character in its diversity, in its uniquenees, in the gracefulness and beauty of the feats performed, and in the good tasts and reasonable length of everything undertaken. The acrobatic feats which occupy about one hilf of the time, are simply superb. In many respects they are the best ever performed in this city. As contortionists, the Japanese were undoubtedly superior, They had a fashion of tying themselves up into hard knots, which is beyond the power of a respectable Christian, and their feats of balancing were also fine. But the Hanlons excel them in all other respects. The acrobatic performances of the latter are graceful and beautiful—albeit, fearful—beyond description, and they are given with a celerity that is amazing and bewildering. The ascension of the spiral by a boy upon a ball is simply marvelous, and although the feat is not by any means a new one, it was performed with novel grace and case last evening. The hat spinning trick was better in the way of sleight of hand, than anything the Japanese attempted in that line, and we question whether any, professional juggler could have surpassed it. Two men spun a couple of felt hats in the air with sileks, and kept them whilling around in the wildest sort of fashion, while they indulged in gymnastic exercises which were difficult enough of themselves without the additional care required by the spinning hats. Decidedly the most peculiar and amusing portion of the entertainment was that in which the poodle dogs appeared. These little animals; but we assure our readers that the poodles at the Academy chipsy the fun fully as much as the addience does, and they need neither coaxing nor florging to induce them to indulge their tastes. night and to-morrow afternoon and evening.

Sunday Evaning Conorers.—Mr. Mark Hassler has perfected his arrangements for the production of his long promised series of Sunday Evening Concerts, and the first of them will be given on Sunday night next at Concert Hall. Mr. Hassler is especially fortunate in having secured the sorvices of the celebrated Madame Lumley, a soprano who has attained great popularity in Europe, and who, we are assured, possesses remarkable vocal powers. The orchestra at these concerts will consist of more than fifty accomplished performers, with an admirable selection and classification of instruments. A very attractive programme of sacred music has been arranged, and it is expected that an immense audience will be present. The net proceeds will be devoted to the Home Missionary Society.

Bunyar Tableaux.—This wonderful series of paintings, illustrative of the sublimest passages in Bunyan's Pilgrims' Progress, is now on exhibition at Concert Hall, and will remain for a brief period longer. It will be open to inspection every evening, and every afternoon during the present week. The paintings are by some of the most celebrated artists in the world, and are really very much superior to those of ordinary panoramas.

PHILADELPHIA OPERA HOUSE.—This evening Mr.

Pathabelevita Opera House.—This evening Mr. Johnny Mack will appear in a number of his most anusing impersonations. Mr. Budworth also will indiage in Ethiopian eccentricities, and the whole company will appear in a choice melange of good things, including songs, dances, local hits, startling connerums, negro comicalities, &c. There will be a performance to-morrow afternoon.

Eleventh Street Opera House.—This evening and during the rest of the week a grand Christmas pantomime, entitled The Magic Pearl, will be presented at this popular establishment. New and beautiful scenery has been prepared, wonderful transformations arranged, and novel tricks, changes and incidents introduced. The pantomime is full of good local hits, and cannot fail to gve pleasure to those who witness it. In addition to this, the usual miscellaneous entertainment, consisting of singing, dancing, &c., will be given. Matinée to-morrow.

Morris Beothers' Montrels.—This troupe will give a performance at Concert Hall this evening. The entertainment will in every vay be excellent, and give great satisfaction to those who are present. Billy Morris, the "end man" of the company, is one of the best men in his peculiar line that we have seen for a long time.

I am now prepared to furnish railroads throughout the United States with my Patent Railroad Switches, by the nee of which the MAIN TRACK IS NEVER BROKEN, and it is impossible for any accident to occur from the misplacement of switches.

The saving in rails, and the great saving in wear of the rolling stock, which is by this means provided with a level, smooth, and firm track at switches in place of the usual movable rails and the consequent severe blows caused by the open joints and battered ends, is a matter deserving the especial attention of all Railroad Companies.
