WARTING THE FIRST SAME AND SECOND SECO members of the territorial Senate. The last stage from Santa Fe to this city brought the particulars, and has placed in my hands everything of public interest in regard to the matter. Much personal feeling had been exhibited of late by the members of the House of Representatives the members of the senate of the presentatives. Judge Slough, both political and private. The anger of the Chief Justice was aroused from the fact that the Legislature had overlooked his offiual position purposely in requesting the Secre-tary to administer the oath of office to the newly-elected officers of the two Houses. This incensed the Chief Justice, and he abused the dignity of ist office in using unbecoming language in the A. lew days later a series of joint resolutions his removal. They were introduced by Captain William L. Rynerson, of the Senate, who considered the conduct of the Judge sufficient to justify his removal. These resolutions enumerated the following as among the grave charges which it is our duty, as legislators, to make against John P. Slough, Chief-Justice of New Maxico:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the people of New Mexico, John P. Slough, Chief Justice, should be removed from his place as Chief Justice, and his place filled by another judge who regards the sanctity of the Judicial office.

These resolutions passed the Senate December 14, by a vote of ten to two. Whereupon the Chief Justice publicly stigmatized Capt. Rynerson, the originator, by a very ungentlemanly epithet, and also as a thief and a coward. About noon on Sunday, the day after the passage of the resolutions, they met in the bar-room of the Exchange Hotel at Santa Fe, and Rynerson demanded a retraction, which was refused, when he immediately drew a pistol and fired at the Judge, the ball entering his body just above the thigh, and after lingering until the following Monday morning he died from the effects of the shot. Rynerson is new under a strong military office and gave himself up.

Judge Slough was a native of Cincinnati, and in the year 1850 was elected to the Legislature of Ohio, from which he was expelled for striking William McCorry, a Democratic member, Slough being himself a Democrat. He was requested to apologize to the House, but upon his refusal to do so that body expelled him. In 1852 he became the Secretary of the Central Democratic Committee of Ohio, which office he filled satisfactorily. Soon after this he went to Kansas, and in 1860 came to this city. Upon the breaking out of the war he raised a company of volunteers, and assumed command of Fort Garland. He finally rose to the rank of Colonel of Volunteers, and was sent into New Mexico and took command of Fort Union. Here he fought his first battle, causing the retreat of the Texan troops. The battle was fought in direct opposition to the orders of his superior officer, General Canby, but terminated successfully, and his Fraise was in the mouths of the people far and near. Immediately after this he threw up his commission as Colonel and repaired to Washington, where he was immediately appointed and confirmed as Brigadier-General of Volunteers, and assigned to duty at Alexandria. He continued as Military Governor at that point up to the close of the war, and throughout his career there his record is one of the most favorable. Law and order prevailed, and his stringent measures worked much good in that city. At the close of the war he was appointed Chief Justice of the Territory of New Mexico. which honorable position he has held up to the time of his death. December 30.—The early sales of gold to day were at % (%) per cent. advance on the closing transactions of Saturday. The market had a firm look until about noon, when the sales from 134 per cent. The Cash Gold was not very easy for the sufficient of the day, which gave additional stiffness to the sales for cash. un the other hand, the foreign Exchanges were not so firm as on Friday and Saturday, and one of the standard houses offer d to draw at 110% per cent, sixly days on Leadon. Of course the deniand for tash Gold is not likely to continue after the New Year, as a large amount of interest thecks will be given out from the Treasury Cilice to morrow, after Bank hours, the receipts for registered interest having boen already signed, and a large number of Coupon schedules compared and verified. rerified.

The transactions in money amiong the bankers and brokers to day were not large, and the market is quiet at 6 per cent, as the general rule, on demand loans. The opinion gains strength that there will be little or no extra preparation for the quarterly Bank return due at Washington on Monday next. If this event is felt at all at bank, it must be by Friday afternoon of the present week; before, which time private money Ladders will reveive a large amount from the Trensury and other quarters for their January dividence. The singular theory is indulged by come of the bearish speculators in stocks that the disbursement of $55,000,000 of $50,000,000 from the "reasury will make money temporarily scarce, as Gold is not Currency; but this is wholly faltacious. The Street receives this Money as the earned wealth of the Hondholders of the United States since its links, from all trade and banking opplyment, as mentile, from all trade and banking opplyment, as effectually as though the gold were still in the mines of California. Its release on Few Year's day, if sold for California by the Govornment, might creets a demand for the latter, and thus tighten the market.
