LETTER FROM PARIS.

Paris, Tuesday, December 31st, 1867.—We are at last beginning to turn our attention from matters abroad to things at home.

The most delicate question of all, however, was that relating to marriage. In a general way the French population is by no means given to early marriages.

We hear good accounts from Brussels of the health of the hapless consort of Maximilian.

THE TICKET ON THE HEARTH.

The firm was Dickens, Dolby & Ticket, and the business was Show. Dickens was the old fellow in the firm who had traveled to all the places where queer things are to be found.

There is no time to tell about all the Hearths there Ticket walked in and made himself at home.

Half-past eight in the morning when Ticket makes his bow to the Pennington public.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Dickens declined church-going at the Hub. Russia is hard at work on breech-loaders.

Two seals were seen on a cake of ice in Newport (Rhode Island) harbor, a day or two since.

Two negroes recently took into a lottery office in Savannah and stole an immense number of tickets.

CAN CONSUMPTION BE CURED?

Is a question which is daily asked by those who are afflicted with this disease.

It is a general wasting of the whole body. Patients having this disease, which is properly called in quantity and quality with food.

There is a general excitement in Vienna owing to the Emperor's having indicated his intention to abdicate.

THE END.
