resion. It is rare to find so powerful a voice good in quality and so well managed. As an tor, also, he is worthy of admiration. Signor illini, as usual, delighted the audience by his ging and acting in the rôle of the "Count di ana," and Signor Barill was excellent as errando." The chorus was large and good, titculary the male voices, and the orchestra, by Maretzek, left nothing to be desired. This hing Don Giovanni is to be given, and towo evening Mmc. Gazzaniga will appear in great part of "Leonora" in La Favorita. The son has opened well and bids fair to be comhas opened well and bids fair to be comly successful.

DECHESTRA MATINEES.—Carl Sentz is fortunate attracting first-class audiences to his concerts, he programmes are varied and interesting to Il classes of amateurs, who will be glad to wel-ome several novelties on Thursday afternoon. The Bear Dance Symphony, by Haydn, will be performed, and Pro Peccatis from Rossini's Stabat Mater will be sung by the celebrated German baritone, Mr. Wm. Hartmann, who makes his first appearance here.

HASSLER'S CONCERTS .- On Sunday evening next Mr. Hassler will give the third of his very popular Sacred Concerts, at Concert Hall. A very attractive programme has been prepared and the natual immense orchestra will attend. On Mon-day afternoon the matinee will be given at Con-cert Hall, and an entertainment of unusual merit may be expected.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE CHESTNUT .- At the Chestnut Street Theaast evening, a dramatization of Dickens' and Wilkie Collins's sketch No Thoroughfare was pronced. Everybody has read the story, and everybody who is familiar with the style of the author of the "Woman in White," knows that No Thoroughfare bears his broad arrow mark upon it rather than that of Mr. Dickens. The strongly narked characters, the exciting incidents, effective situations and the tragic power of the story, offered to dramatists an unusually fine op-portunity to adapt it for the stage. Some half zen dramatizations have been made, and of these Mr. Sinn has procured by no means the best. It is good, but it needs judiclous condensation in some places, and expansion in others, that it may still more clearly tell its own story.

It is hardly fuir to judge of the morits of a play from a first performance, and it is for this reason that we deem it but simple justice to the management of the Chestnut to state fairly that despite some objections in the arrangement of the text and the plot, and those invariable and apparently inevitable derangements of machinery which occur upon first nights, we think the have done a creditable thing in producing this drams with the speed and in the style with which it has been done. The scenic effects are very fine. The Alpine gorge is novel and beautiful, and although the avalanche would not tumble in à precisely correct manner last evening, it was easy to perceive that the scene, when managed properly, as it will be, would produce a startling and wonderful effect. It is by all odds the best thing of the kind presented upon the stage in this city for a long time, and we hope every play-goer will take care to see it.

It is very pleasant to do such an unusual thing to award to each of the performers hearty as to award to each of the performers hearty praise for the capital manner in which the parts were presented. Mr. Murdoch, first of all, made a very favorable impression in the somewhat difficult part of "Wilding." He gave an excellent interpretation of the character in the story, and showed that he had gone beyond the drama card studied the man as he was drawn by the pen and snowed that he had gone beyond the drama and studied the man as he was drawn by the pen "of the novelist. Mr. McManus as "Obenrelzer," was very fine, Mr. Smith's "Bintry," was up to the standard of this excellent actor; Mr. Leake, we think, did better than usual as "Vendale." Miss Orton, whom we consider by far the most miss Orion, whom we consider by far the most accomplished stock actress in this city, had in "Marguerite" a part entirely too unimportant to permit a fair exhibition of her powers, but she did what little she had to do, well. Mr. Lennox's "Joey Ladle" was the best thing in the play and ought to be put down with the avalanche as one of the leading attractions. play and ought to be put down with the avai-anche as one of the leading attractions. Alto-gether we have nothing but words of praise to write of this performance, excepting to urge upon Mr. Sinn a careful revision of the text, with a view to cutting out superfluous lan-guage, and inserting a few lines in some places to make the plot more intelligible. It is unneces-tomake the plot more intelligible. It is unneceseary to mention in detail where correction is needed. The good taste of the stage manager will probably suggest it. We must not conclude these brief remarks without commending the excellent and beautiful device by which the "over-ture" to the story is related in "Wilding's" dream. This saves a deal of confusion and trouble, and reflects credit upon the judgment of the dramatist, who would have been more successful if he had exercised the same discretion in other

As Moran does everything well, a rich treat may be expected. In addition, the company has been augmented by several new faces, while Moran will present five new acts for the first time. To enjoy this great bill seats should be secured in advance.

NEW JERSEY AFFAIRS.

THE PROPOSED CANAL.—The proposition to construct a ship canal between Camden and the tide water of Mullicas river is meeting with great encouragement. The enterprise is so apparently feasible, and would be attended with so many feasible, and would be attended with so many beneficial results, that the stock, it is thought, will be disposed of without any difficulty whatever. A charter incorporating a company with authority to build it will be granted by the Legislature, and the work of arranging the preliminaries will then be at once commenced. This is the most important improvement that has been proposed in New Jerrey for many years past because of the vast interest to commerce and inter-State communication involved in it. The greatest dangers to the coasting business lie inter-State communication involved in it. The greatest dangers to the coasting business lie between the Barnegat sand-bars and the Delaware Bay, dangers which would be avoided by this canal, and thus millions of dollars would be saved. The project seems to be favorably considered by the citizens of Camden, Atlantic, and the citizens of the southern part of Burlington county. When the company have become fully organized, it is believed that little difficulty will be experienced in obtaining subscriptions to a experienced in obtaining subscriptions to a ficient amount to build it.

THE LEGISLATURE.—On Tuesday next, the instant, the Legislature of New Jersey will instant, the Legislature of New Jersey will were at Trenton. The same may be said of the bread and Indian meal. By an advertisement of the Society, to be found in another part of this paper, we see that the funds for carrying on the operations are derived entirely from voluntary contributions and we know of no way in tary contributions, and we know of no way in which money given for a charitable purpose is more sure to reach, at once, the persons for whose relief it is intended, or do a greater amount of good in proportion to the amount. Visitors to the Soup House are always wel-come, and particularly on Mondays and Satur-days, the days upon which bread is given out, between 11 and 1 o'clock. What we have said of this Soup House applies, we believe, to all the others in the city, all being equally well managed and worthy of liberal support.

ALLEGED BURGLARS. - A notice of the arrest of two Frenchmen, named Chas. Mulary and Alfred Loboor, for peddling without a license, was published in the BULLETIN a few days since. In the ossession of the men a black valise, marked "H. G. Leisenring," was found. It was then as-certained that the dwelling of Mr. Leisenring was entered last August, during the absence of the occupants, and robbed or various articles, valued at a considerable sum. Yesterday Day Sergeants Magee, Johnson and Reese went to a house at Sixth and Lombard streets, and searched a room which had been occupied by Murlary and Loboor. A number of articles which had been stolen from the house of Mr. Leisenring were found. Also, the following articles, which are at the Central Station awaiting identification: 14 pairs of fine calf skin boots, (N. Y. make); one piece of red merino; 107 linen handkerchiefs; two black cloth dress coats; four shirt bosoms; one cassimere vest, and three pairs of black cloth pants. The prisoners had another hearing before Ald. Jones yesterday, and were committed in default of $5,000 bail to answer the charge of burglary.

THE SEVENTEENTH SCHOOL DISTRICT .- The Seventeenth School District is in some confusion in consequence of the action of its school board in relation to the election of a Principal for the Harrison Grammar School. Mr. McBride, the old Principal, resigned recently, and at a special meeting of the Board, at which every member was present, held on the 17th of December last, Mr. Phillip Greenman was closted by a decided Mr. Philip Cressman was elected by a decided majority to fill the vacancy. On the 26th of the same month a stated meeting of the Board was held, and the members undid their work of the 17th by electing a Mr. Gentry to fill the vacant Principalship. As there is but one vacancy, and only sufficient room for one Principal, either Mr. Creseman or Mr. Gentry must go to the wall. The action of the Board seems whimsical and capricious, and the question arises whether the action of the 17th or that of the 26th ultimo is legal. The whole matter has been referred to the Board of Control, where justice will doubtless be done.
