Mr. Howard supported the amendment of Senator Morton. He coud d not vote to give to the South privalege ne was compelled to deny his own constituents; and be inquired of the Chairman of the Finance Committee (Mr. Sherman) whether provision had been made for supplying the deflect occasioned by removing this tax?

Mr. Schenck, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill to prevent frauds in the collection of taxes on distilled spirits. Ho said that it was in advance of the general action of the committee on the subject of the revenue laws, and was reported now out of the conviction that this was a point upon which immediate action was required for the best interests of the country.

The bill provides that from and after its passage no distilled spirits in bonds shall be withdrawn or removed from any warehouse for the purpose of transportation, redistillation, rectification, change of package, exportation, or for any other purpose whatever, until the full tax on such spirits shall be duly paid to the collector of the proper district; and it repeals all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with it.

Mr. Bonzack addressed the House in explanation and advocacy of the bill, and said tvirtually does away with the bonded warehouse system; the effect of it will be, in the first place, to release legitimately, if ever at all, the distilled apprits now in the collection of the committee of the committee.

Mr. Schofeld (4.9.) moved an amendment providing that the proceeds of the sales shall be paid into the Treasury. this morning at nine o'clock, destroying the Far-well Hall, one of the handsomest edifices in this that the proceeds of the sales shall be paid into the Treasury.

Mr. Washburne (III.) expressed a desire to have information as to the number and names, prices, &c., of from clade belonging to the Navy, saying that he was satisfied there had been the grossed abuses in the whole business.

Mr. Wood, (N. Y.) suggested that the vessels should be sold at public auction, too Board fixing their minimum prices. He thought that course necessary to protect the government.

Mr. Pike (Me.) stated that this bill applied to The state of the first the vessels and the first the walls falling on all sides, making a total ruin.

Ole Bull, the violinist, gave an entertainment in the hall last evening, and was to have given in the hall last evening. Mr. Pike (Me.) stated that this bill applied to 54 from clad vensels that were now laid up. Of these there were at Lengue Island. 21; New Orleans, 8; Mound City, 8; And Philadelphia, 3.

Mr. Maynard (Tenn.) inquired as to who were expected to be the pu classes.

Mr. Pike said it was manifest that it was the interest of the Government to dispose of these vessels. A botter class could be produced in case of necessity; for in addition to them, there was a number of iron-class on the stocks which could be completed in a very short time.
