year ago she was taken eick at the place where she was living, and died, all efforts to relieve her proving unavailing, and the cause of her disease unknown.

Nothing was thought of it until last fall, in September, when Olive was taken sick in the same manner, at home. She was relieved, and was able to be up, when she was taken again and soon died, having the symptoms of poison. Suspicions were quietly whispered about, but nothers. belons were quietly whispered about, but nothing done. Then little Lettle (the youngest) was taken sick in the same violent manner, but recovered, partially, and is able to be around, but not well. The suspicions were whispered londer, and the physicians thought of exhuming the hold. At this entertainment the programme of the calleo ball was reversad. Instead of the ladies coming in cheap dresses to be afterwards removed for the benefit of the poor, and the evening terminating en grande tenue, the female portion of the guests were expected to come attired in their very best, and at twelve o'clock retire to the dressing rooms, where they were to doff all their silks, brocades and jewelry, and assume some inexpensive attire provided beforehand. The cast-off attire was to be sold for the benefit of a benevolent institution which Mrs. X. was about starting, and so realize a much more considerable sum than even the most liberal approbation. LONDON, Jan. 18 .- When the Cunard steamship Scotia, from New York for Liverpool, entered the port of Queenstown, late last evening, for the usual transfer of the London and Irish passengers and mails, a strong police force quietly went aboard and arrested Messrs. George Francis Train, Grinnell and Gee, three of the passengers who sailed from New York. It is understood that these gentlemen were taken into custody on a charge of being active members of the American wing of the Fenian organization. These proceedings, naturally enough, caused considerable excitement both here and elsewhere throughout the kingdom, and especially amongst American residents. Paris, Jan. 18 .- The Duke de Persigny in a letter objects to the bill recently proposed for the government of the prees of the country. He thinks the press will be allowed too much latitude, and while he would favor a bill designed to give more freedom to the press, the obvious ten-dency of the provisions of the present bill would be to leave the journals free to assail public and private character.

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 18.—Parliament met vesterday, and the King, as usual, delivered the opening speech. After reviewing the state of the country, he entered upon the subject of the inefficency of the amry, and favored the enrollment of all the male population in militia organizations, and the purchase of the most improved arms for the use of the army.
