XLth CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION.

CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS

Mr. Doolittle presented a memorial signed by over one thousand citizens of Alabams, protesting against negro rale, and praying for continuance of military government over the Blate. It sets forth many alleged grievances and misrepresentations, and concludes as follows: Continue over us, if you will do so, your own rule by the sword; send down among us honorable and upright men of your own people, of the race to which you and we belong, and ungraceous, contrary to wisepolicy and the institutions of the contry, and tyrannops as it, will be, no hand will be raised among us to resist by force their althority, but do not, we implore you, abdicate your own rule over us by transferring us to the blighting buttalizing and unnatural dominion of an alien and inferior race—a vacco which has neverthalown administrative capacity for the good government of even the fribes into which it has always been broken up in its native seats, and which in all ages has light furnished slaves for all the races of the easth.

he could say:

"I hear a lion in the loby roat;
Say, Mr. Speaker, shall we shut the door,
And keep him out, of shall we let him in,
To try if we can turn him out again"

At the coundation of Mr. Dawes speech the House proceeded to a vote; the first question being on the substitute offered by Mr. Kerr for the resolutions reported by the committee.

The substitute is as follows:

Resolved, That John Y. Brown, not having voluntarily given aid, count nance, counsel or encourage-be supplied in this manner for a binger period that thirty days.

Mr. Ornans, of Lows, calles up the bill for the relief of certain government contractors. He explained that the matter had been referred to a committee of the House, which find instructed the Secretary of the Navy to inquire into the subject, and who then referred it to a commoders and other officers. Those officers had reported that there is justly due the sum manifoned in the bill, about 38 0,000, for the balance of expense resulting from changes made in iron-clads, and the Committee on Naval Affairs had reported a bill accordingly.

Finally the House, by a unanimous vote, passed a bill entirely repealing the act of last year, and the same was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The act creating a new judiciate in the district of Lycoming was denounced by Mr. Mann, of Petter, as directly involving a cost to the State of over ten thousand dollars per annum; and as being urged for the sake of giving positions of judges and officers to a few persons in Lycoming county. No acts justified the passage of the bill. The new district would be smaller than any other in the State. The allegations made in favor of to nevertheless, he desired to protest again.
