MEMORIAL FROM THE COLORED PROPLE OF MIRRISEIPPL

A Memorial From the Colored People of Mississippi. Special Despatch to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Judge Kelley prosented a memorial to day from three thousand colored people of Mississippi, asking that Con-gress make an appropriation to carry them to Liberia. They say they see no prospect of success by remaining smong the whites. The latter, they say, have all the lands, and refuse to give them fair wages for their labor, and they therefore wish to emigrate.

 Floed in China Overflowing of gtbe Yellow River. Terrible Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.
 The Shanghae correspondence of the Boston Traveler, dated Dec. 10, refers thus to the recent food.

"China's sorrow, the Whang hu, part and par cel of the Yellow River, has ov in its periodical deluge, but this season causing almost unlimited devastation, flooding a space of over four thousand miles and sweeping off en-tire villages, and inundating any and everything in the rush of the waters. Thousands have perin the rush of the waters. Thousands have per-summary measures, regardless of the conse-quences with which partisans might threaten me. I do not know what fuller report could be far-nished in this case, for all papers explaining house to house, seeking shelter, or food from the enough to last for a few days-and then sufferin and starvation awaits them during the winter months. The amount of destitution even now is absolutely frightful, and unless the Chinese Gov-ernment takes active measures before the froat sets in, these hard-working farming people will hardly survive their at best miserable existence Their past experience has taught them to rely on their own resources only, as Government will hardly extend a helping hand to dying fellow creatures.
