This case was fixed for this morning, but another case having precedence, it had not been reached when our report closed. City Solicitor Lyon tated this morning, however, that he did not think there would be an argument of any moment, as he had already as Solicitor instructed Councils that it was their duty to examine the surctles submitted by Gen. Ballicr.

ONE OF PHILADELPHIA'S HONORS.—In addition to the first prize over all competitors at the Paris exhibition, for numerous productions of our own industry, Philadelphia took that offered or counting-house blank-books. European citzens make this work in admirable perfection, There were sixty competitors at the Exposition, and but a single prize. Nearly all the principal chies of the continent were represented, but the houser of carrying off the palm is added to those about the particular of the palm is added to those about the palm is added to the palm is already characterizing our Philadelphia blank-book manufacturers, Wm. F. Murphy & Sons, corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets.

The set of books thus outstripping all the offerings of the old world have come back to the contributors, together with the prize of sward. The latter comprises two medals of bronze, with the arms of the Imperial Court in rich gilding, the whole enclosed in a frame of walnut. NOON-DAY PRAYER MEETING. - The daily prayer meetings which once crowded Jayne's Hall, and afterwards the old church in Sansom street, are now continued in the rooms over the Library of the Young Men's Christian Association, at 1210 Chestnut street. The same earnest spirit of devotion is manifested, but the place being less central, does not secure a large attendance the meeting yesterday mention was made of the opening of the Bethany Mission Building, at opening of the Bethany Mission Building, at Twenty-second and Shippen, as a striking proof that "in due season we shall reap if we faint not." Special prayer was offered for the large school in Washington for freedmen, established by the untiring efforts of Rev. Dr. Turney; also, for Herndon's Bassa Mission, in Liberia, (established by one who was for torty years a slave in Kentucky, without aid from any Society and without any salary;) also, for the sick mother of a pious daughter. This meeting is one of unusual interest. The prayers and addresses are all voluntary. Strangors are always made welcome.

IMPORTANT MISSIONARY MEETING. - A missionary meeting of great interest was held recently at the Tabernacle Baptist Church, in this city. Rev. Dr. Murdoch, Secretary of the American Baptist Missionary Union, was present, and made an address of peculiar interest. He described the progress of the missionary work among the Teloogoos in India; among the Garows in Assaut, and among the Karens in Burnah; also the fathful labors of converts in China. In Sweden there has been remarkable progress in connection with the labors of Messrs. Wiberg, Broady, Edgren and others. In Germany the fathful Oucken reports rapid growth among the churches. Addresses were delivered by Rev. A. Judson Dr. Murdoch, Secretary of the American Baptist Addresses were delivered by Rev. A. Judson Sage and Rev. J. Wheaton Smith. The success of the missions renders large donations indispen sable. Means are also needed to resume the missionary work in Africa.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY .- A confectionery store and dwelling, No. 613 South Second street, was entered by burglars last night, by a back window, which was reached by climbing over a house in the rear, and then getting upon a shed. A young woman, who occupied one of the upper rooms, heard an unusual noise down stairs. She went down, and found two men in one of the lower apartments. They attempted to escape. She seized one by the coat sleeve, and held on to it, notwithstanding the vigorous efforts of the fellow to release himself. The sleeve finally gave way, and the turglars succeeded in getting CORONER'S INQUEST .- Coroner Daniels held an inquest this morning upon the body of Thomas Brady, who died from a blow alleged to have been inflicted by Henry Stonemetz, in a difficulty at the livery stable of Simon Knetdler, on Marshall street, near Poplar, about ten days ago.

The evidence elicited brought out the same facts The evidence elicited brought out the same facts which were published in the Bullerin of yesterday. The evidence of the physician who made the post-mortem examination was to the effect that the deceased had had mania-a-poin since his admission to the Hospital, and that death resulted therefrom. The verdict of the jury was death from nania-a-potu.

THE HEBREW CHARITY BALL.-On Tuesday evening, the 25th inst., the Hebrew Charity Ball will be given at the Academy of Music. The preparations for this entertainment have been made upon the most extensive scale. Everything that good taste could suggest and lavish expenditure procure has been obtained. The affair is in the hands of experienced gentlemen, whose names are a sufficient guarantee that nothing will be left undone that will contribute to the comfort and enjoyment of the guests.

THREATENING A WITNESS .- James Devereaux was arrested yesterday, upon the charge of threatening Owen Hannan. Devereaux had previously been charged with assaulting a man named P. Maguire, and Hannan was a witness in the case. The accused was taken before Alder-man Massey, and was held in $500 bail to answer at Court. CHARGED WITH ROBBERY .- James Planer and Josephine Riley were arrested yesterday and taken before Alderman Morrow, upon the charge of having robbed of $25 a pedlar named Henry who was enticed into a house at Lisbon and Hurst streets. They had a hearing before Alder-man Morrow, and were held in $800 ball for trial.

BOLD THEFT .- A man named George Moore was yesterday caught in the act of rolling a barrel of sugar from Tobin's grocery store, at Fourth and South streets. He was arrested and taken before Alderman Morrow, and was committed for further hearing.

TRUE BILLS FOUND. - The Grand Jury has found true bills against the newsdealers who were arrested for selling certain illustrated papers, which were recently seized by the police as being immoral publications.

STEALING FLOUR .-- A negro named John Wilkins was arrested this morning, in the Farmers Market, upon the charge of stealing flour... He was taken before Ald. Jones and was committed to answer.

THE MAENNERCHOR .- The first monthly festival and hop of the Maennerchor was given last evening at the new hall southwest corner of Fifth and Callowhill streets. The affair passed off very pleasantly.

FIRE.—An alarm of fire about six o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of a bed in the house of Mrs. Cottman, at No. 726 N. Second street. No other damage was done. ROBBERY .- Last evening three pieces of muslin

CAMDEN PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- The public schools of Camden were never in a more prosperous condition, nor under more efficient management. The quarterly examinations have been just concluded, and the average of the pupils exhibited a gratifying advancement in the various branches of education taught. The greatest inconvenience experiences is that resulting from the want of room. More than one hundred scholars have made application for admittance who cannot be supplied with seats. But this difficulty will be obviated as soon as the new school house in Middle Ward is completed, the fine edifice in North Ward having to supply many publis from of Camden were never in a more prosperous con in Middle Ward as completed, the line cultee in North Ward having to supply many pupils from Middle Ward with seats and accommodations. The Board of Education, however, are progress-ing in their work of making the educational advantages of Camden equal to those of any other county, so far as the public schools are con-

HANDSOME. - The amount realized from the Readings by Mr. Murdoch, in Camden, for the benefit of the destitute widows and orphans of beroes fallen in defence of our country amounted to over six hundred dollars.

F KILLED.—A few days since a lad named Os-horne, residing in South Ward, was killed by a shed falling upon him. Two others were severely injured.

ADJOURNED.—The courts for the January term of Camden county have adjourned, after a session of four weeks. A large number of cases were disposed of, ranging through the various grades of petty crimes.

IT IS ALL A HUMBUG.—This is always the hue and cry of those who will not take the trouble to reason, to investigate and to test the truth of any new discovery in Philosophy and Science. I rely on nothing with certainty (being a matter-of-fact man) till practical experience proves its truth or failsty. I have had ample or portunity to test the virtues of Wolcott's Pain Paint and his great Catarrh Remedy on myself and in my family, therefore, I, as an individual, without fear of success hil contradiction, pronounce it one of the most wonderful wonders of the age to relieve those who suffer with pain.
