Mclancholy Story of Suffering on Beard the American Schooner Moses Waring.

The Gibralter Chronicle of January 20 states that the British bark Minnie Gordon, which ar that the British bark Minnie Gordon, which arrived at that port on the preceding day from New York, brought the master and two seamen of the United States schooner Mesos Waring. This vessel was water-logged in a gale, and on the 18th of December was fallen in with by the Minnie Gordon, when the survivors of her crew were taken off the wreck in the last stage of debility from exposure and survivors of her crew were taken on the wreck in the last stage of debility from exposure and famine. By the humane and judicious exer-tions of Mr. Leslie, the master of the Minnie Gordon, their lives were preserved, but they still stand in need of medical treatment. The dreadful tale of their sufferings is thus given by Cap-

As daylight broke I saw, bearing Ne N. E. from me, something which looked like two spar buoys, standing at an angle of 60 degrees, just as far as the eye could reach. As day broke clearer could make out with the glass that it was a yessel waterlogged and on her beam-ends. it was a yessel waterlogged and on her beam-ends Then determined to go close enough to ascortain if there were any of the crew still on the wreck. At 8.30 A. M. could with the glass make wreck. At 8.30 A. M. could with the glass make out what appeared to be two men on the port quarter. On approaching nearer saw three men waving a piece of white canvass; stood close up under the lee of the wreck and hove to, got out large boat, in doing which stove one side of her. Mr. Chas. Miller, chief officer, and three seamen started for the wreck. After great exertion and a hard pull succeeded in getting the captain and two remaing men in the boat, and got safely back to the bark, hoisted in the boat, and proceeded on remaing men in the boat, and got safely back to the bark holsted in the boat, and proceeded on the voyage, taking the weak, famished men into the catin where there was a stove, giving them dry clothing and some atlanulants and small quantities of water often repeated, they having had nothing to eat or drink for seven days and nights, with the exception of when the mate died, two days previously, they all cut some of his raw flesh and ate it, the cook having died before) the mate, and his body washed overboard. They were complete skeletons, the captain being in the worst condition; his checks were sunk in till they appeared to touch each other their feet and legs as high as their knees were completely paralyzed and dead from long—expocompletely paralyzed and dead from long expo-sure and submersion in cold water and want of sure and submersion in cold water and want of the wreck above water to hold on to. They could not possibly have survived that day through had not Providense kindly sent me to their assistance. I gave them food by degrees, with small doses of brandy and water, and rubbed their feet with soap liniment; then put them to sleep in the warm cabin. On waking the Captain gave me the following account of the loss of his vessel, stating that two days previous to my talling in with him a brig, westward bound, name unknown to him saw them and stood towards them until quite near (weather moderate at the time), when he put up weather moderate at the time, where the put his helm and ran away from them. Washington, Feb. 16, 1868, 11 o'clock P. M.— Washington gossip has been actively engaged for several days past with the resuscitated scheme of impeachment and the critical condition of Southern reconstruction on the African exaltation basis; but these absorbing topics are beginning to wane before a new subject, which seems to promise a sensation that will even outlive the to promise a sensation that will even outlive the prescribed nine days. Political prophets are turning their attention towards the movements at the Presidential mansion, and appear to descry somewhere ments at the Presidential mansion, and appear to descry somewhere in the near future a distinct foreshadowing of important events soon to transpire. They do not ieel altogether satisfied with the mystery that envelopes the movements of the President. His extreme forbearance and dignified self-control under the many trials of patience he has encoununder the many trials of patience he has encountered during the present session of Congress, but especially in the late War Department quarrel, taken in connection with his recent unexpected orders creating the new Military Division of the Atlantic, have impressed his enemies with a sense of uneasiness which they endeavor in vain to conceal. They seem to feel that a few trumps yet raming in the hands of the President and there is main in the hands of the President, and there is no knowing at what unlucky moment for them said trumps may come down with a vilm that will work sudden and effectual demoralization. The action of the President in nominating Lieutenant-General Sherman for the brevet of general; the order appointing him to the command of the Military Division of the Atlantie with his headquarters here; the reinstatement of Adjutant-General Lorenzo Thomas to his eld position in the War Department, and the proposed increase of the military force in this district, all of which was decided upon and ordered with so much promptness, inspire many old politicians with the belief that the old politicians with the belief that the President is coolly and carefully maturing a plan to checkmate anything of a revolutionary character that may be hereafter attempted. These matters are giving rise to a great deal of specula-tion as to their import, and already rumors are abroad embodying the guesses of different indi-viduals who assume to be well posted in regard viduals who assume to their algorification.

And it came to pass that when his children heard those words, that objected his hand upon and blessed them. And it came to pass that when his children heard these words, that they wept sore and said one to an ther, "What shall we do?" And the eldest spake these words unto them: "Behold, there is a man in the great city of New York who healeth all manner of pain in a moment; and behold, we will take our father thither;" and, when they heard these words they brought forth bags of gold, silver and preclous stones, as a present to the Doctor in the great city! And Jehn spake yet again and said: "Behold, the great Doctor will take no gold, allver, or preclous stones, but removeth all pain without cost for rich or poor." And they saddled their beasts and took the old man and journeyed many days, and came to the great city of New York, and they lifted the old man and carried him tenderly unto Dr. Wolcott, in Chatham squaro, No. 170. And the Doctor looked upon their father, and saw that he was very sick and nigh anto death. And the Doctor led him into a private room, and commanded that his garments be all taken off. And it came to pass; after he was stripped, that the Doctor took a liquid called Pan Pann, and dipped a brush into it, and painted him, and behold, while the Doctor was yet painting, the old man recovered and stood up, and immediately walked as before times. And the children gathered to gether and embraced him with great joy. They also filled their bags with bottles of Pan Pann, and took their departure with music and gladness, and they told the people as they journeyed. And the people marveled greatly; but when they saw the bottles of Pan Pann, and took their departure with music and gladness, and they told the people as they had bought, they offered money and bought also for their own sick folk. AN INTERESTING LETTER TO MR. LEOPOLI HOFF (HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT DEPOT, 542 BROAD-WAY, NEW YORK), BY THOS. HARFORD, ESQ., OF THE NEW YORK HOME JOURNAL-DEAR SIE: As an act of gratitude to you, and for the advantage of any one who may read this, I wish to say that my daughter has derived great relief and benefit from the use of your Malt Extract Beverage of Health. She has been ill for a long time suffering from consumption, general debility, loss of blood and strength. I followed the advice of the well-known Dr. W. John Mitchell, to try your Malt Beverage, and am pleased to admit that rom its use she has received great benefit, and seems to be recovering her health. She feels compelled to take it continually, for if she misses it but one day she suffers considerably, and there is a relapse of her old complaint and a return of physical weakness. Therefore your preparation should be generally known as a wonderfu
