FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

[Correspondence of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.] BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 27, 1867 .- The melancholy annals for the past few weeks form a chapter possibly the darkest in the River Plate history. Cholera has swept down the Parana river from the pestiferous quarters of the Allied army, and agair settled in Buenos Ayres. For months past it was known that there were some cholera cases in this city, but since the sailing of the French in this city, but since the sailing of the French packet the mortality increased with such rapidity that the people took fright, and half the population fied to the camp; not even during the terrible visitation last April, when 3,000 of our fellow-citizens were carried off, was the panic so great as it has been for the last ten days. Business may be said to be at a complete stand-still, half the population has field, the streets are no longer crowded, and at night the lurid flames of ten thousand fires, lighted for the purpose of fumigation, give a hegapirious for the purpose of fumigation, give a lugubrious appearance to this city, once the most famed for its salubrity. Nevertheless, the town corporation or municipality, with their characteristic indo-lence, took no adequate steps, no measures to clean the city. At the public cemetery coffiins, iled high, waiting for interment, and not even hands sufficient to dig graves; the refuse from the houses lying in boxes before the doors until a houses lying in boxes before the doors until a late hour; acpravity, neglect and crime, nothing short of wholesale murder, had reached its climax. The people of Buenos Ayres arose, held an indignation meeting in the plaza, and passed resolutions demanding the instant and absolute resignation of the whole Municipal Board. The municipality refused, the people rushed to the building determined to enforce their resolutions. building determined to enforce their resolutions. and the board, finding they could no longer trifle with the public, resigned en masse. owing to the courageous interference of the Governor and his ministers, no violence ensued, and the people retired to their homes; but never on any occasion was the voice on any occasion was the voice of public opinion more sacredly employed than in burling from office those men whose horrid negligence had reduced the city to such an appalling condition. Since the deposi-tion of the board, the Government has taken the most rigorous steps; still, there is much to be done; the city requires a thorough sewerage, and a complete water supply. The weather has be-come slightly more favorable, the mortality has diminished, and we live in the hope that the extinction of the municipality will prove the resurrection of the city.

The war news of the fortnight amounts to little. We have had recent advices from headquarters; the cholera has declared itself with intense virulence in both camps, at Corrientes and the Grand Chaco. Lopez holds out at Humaita, and has made no offensive move, although one is hourly expected. Recruits arrive from Brazil by each expected. Recruits arrive from brazil by each transport, and supplies are constantly sent up from this city. What the Allies are doing, in from this city. What the Allies are doing, intend to do, will do, or can do, no one in Buenos Ayres knows, or even cares to know. It appears, as far as we can gather, that the Allies have no intention whatever to attack Lopez's positions. They are strengthening their lines around Humaita by ditches, &c., and when they have a disposable force at their command they intend to despatch a division to seize Asuncion. the capital of Paraguay, and destroy its splendid

The state of the interior calls for no particular remarks; things are without any material change. The Special Commissioner appointed by the Government to proceed to Rioja to settle the disturbances up there, has been obliged to return to this city, owing to the desertion at the post-houses, and the ravages of the cholera in some of the country towns. Things are, however, much quieter than at the leaving of the French packet. If we except the inroad of Indians at one or two exposed points, there has been nothing in the interior to disturb the peace. Rosarie has suffered seriously from the cholera, but now the health of the town is better, business is improving, a new Saladero has commenced working, and things are beginning to look somewhat brighter.

The financial condition of our market has been much affected by the edict of the Montevideo Government legalizing the stoppage of specie payments. Exchange has again receded and is now at a rate which renders specie shipments the best remittance; the Humboldt, which left ou Friday, took £50,000, in gold, for England, and the Halley, which leaves now, will also take a large shipment. No hopes for any amelioration in the Montevidean money market is entertained until one or two of the banks of "that city liquidate. The paper emission has been excessive, and beyond all the requirements of legitimate trade and commerce. The wildest speculation has been fostered and supported by banks whose only atms seem to have been to declare large dividends, whilst the wool market may be fairly said to cease to exist. Montevideo, during the last few years, has been progressing apace, the city is almost built anew; on every side are evidences of the most gigantic improvements, but the country interests are declining; the estamia business has fallen off; sheep, cattle and lands have depreciated, and the exchange market, which rules the country, has been so low as to cause large specie ex-

In the provinces of Buenos Ayres and Santa Fe, much more attention is now paid to grain crops, and large tracts have been ploughed up. wheat crop is splendid this year and more sufficient.

Owing to the gloomy state of things in the River Plate, we repeat our warning to those of our countrymen disposed to come out up the Plate in quest of situations. There are none, save the most menial, offering, and the city is full of young men looking for situations, with but very remote chance of obtaining any. Laborers and mechanics are the only eligible classes of emigration for the Plate at present. of emigration for the Plate at present.

CITY BULLETIN,

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders. The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company was held this morning in Concert Hall. There was a very fair attendance

Hon. Morton McMichael, Mayor of the city, presided, and Edmund Smith, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

The twenty-first annual report of the President and Board of Managers, for the year 1867, was read. It will be found in full in another portion of to-day's Bulletin.

Mr. John Derbyshire offered a resolution ac-epting the report, and directing its publication in paraphlet form.

Colonel James Page said that the policy of the managers was so decidedly approved by the stockholders at the last meeting, that he did not make any opposition. He had listened to the reading of the report, but no person, without previous examination, can pretend to know whether the figures therein are correct, without further examination. He held that this the duty of all who have agent to superpresent n pamphlet form. it is the duty of all who have agents to superin-tend and supervise their doings, and the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are merely the agents of the stockholders. He did not believe in accepting a report as soon as it was read, and he should never vote for the acceptance of any report without its having been pitviously examined by an auditing committee. He had made so many motions to that effect heretofore, that he now intended to leave that matter to other gentlemen All he desired was to get some information upon certain matters in the last annual report, and he read a statement drawing a comparison between the annual report and other statements and ac-tions of the Directors, and the report to the Auditor General, going to show that discrepancies existed. These discrepancies would show that the company had been false to the State. No stockholder desires to be false to the State, and he thought that it was his duty to call attention to the matter.

Mr. Derbyshire said that when he saw anything in the reports which he did not understand he went to the office, asked the Secretary or Treasurer, and the desired information has always been cheerfully given. If Col. Page had done the same thing, he would have had all the explana-

Mr. John M. Kennedy made an explanation as to what appeared to Col. Page to be a discrepancy n the interest account spoken of. Theo. Cuyler, Esq., agreed with Col. Page that it is the interest and duty of the stockholders to investigate the report, and to know who their agents are. There is a month now before the election for managers. He hoped that during this interval the stockholders will go to the office and inquire about any matters which they may not understand. The information will be cheerfully given. They can then vote intelligently, and after these investigations they will give the present Board of Managers a larger vote than they ever received before. [Applause.]

Col. Page said that the discrepancies alluded to by him may be susceptible of explanation, but he contended that the explanation made by Mr. Kennedy did not reach the point made by him He did not want the investigations to be made in the office of the Company. He thought that this long and interesting report should be carefully examined by an auditing Committee outside of the stockholders-a standing committee of inte

Mr. Solomon W. Roberts accounted for the apparent discrepancy between the report of the Directors and that made to the Auditor General, by stating that the former was up to Dec. 31, while the latter was up to Oct. 31. Mr. Cuyler explained that a certain discrepancy between the Treasurer's report and the re-port of the Investigation Committee referred to by Colonel Page, was caused by the Treasurer carrying certain stocks and bonds on his books at cost price, while the committee put them down at their market value, after careful inquiry. Mr. Whitney acquiesced in the view of Col. Page so far as a standing audit-committee was desirable, as a means of averting trouble from those who like Col. Page are constantly desirous of making personal inquiries concorning the affairs of the company.

The resolution to accept the report was adopted with applause.

Mr. Derbyshire offered the following:

Mr. Derbyshire offered the following:

Mercus, The policy of stock dividends has again been referred to by the Board of Directors in their annual report, as one which they would prefer to avoid if the assent thereto could be had of the city of Philadelphia; therefore Resolved, That the Board of Directors be instructed to invite a conference with the Commis sioners of the Sinking Fund of the city of Phila delphia with a view to a change in the pring financial plan of periodical stock dividends. The resolution was adopted.

A vote of thanks to the Mayor for presiding was manimously adopted.

The meeting then adjourned. A HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.-Mr. Samuel M Heulings, proprietor of the American Hotel, on Chestnut street, opposite Independence Hall has just completed extensive additions to his es tablishment, which will not only furnish addi-tional comforts and conveniences to the guest of the house, but will be a great accommodation to the general public. The most prominent feature of these improvements is an elegant billiard saloon—one of the largest and finest fitted up affairs of the kind to be found in the United States. The room is 30 feet in width by 210 in length, extending through to Minor street. The walls and ceiling are handsomely frescoed, and the floor is covered with a costly carpet. There are sixteen of Phelan's improved tables, arranged with sufficient space between them to allow players at each table to enjoy their game without interfering with those at the next table. Over each table is a chandeller containing four burners. Well arranged skylights furnish an abundance of light during the day. The entire apartment is fitted up with a high degree of elegance. On Chestnut street, immediately in front of the billiard saloon, are the restaurant, bar and eigar stand, which are also fitted up in a first-class manner. In the basement there is a hair-cutting and shaving establishment, and in is a hair-cutting and shaving establishment, and it the rear of that an extensive bathing department, which will tend to supply a great want in the lower section of the city. There are twenty-six neat and comfortable rooms 9 feet 6 inches by 7 feet 6 inches, having in front of them a 12 feet hall extending the whole length of 210 feet to Minor street. These rooms are supplied with showers, and have and cold water—the latter being introand hot and cold water-the latter being introduced on an improved plan, so as to avoid steam-There are numerous windows at the rear ing. There are numerous windows at the rear and on the side, and the light and ventilation cannot be exceeded. The boilers for heating the water are in another building, so that in summer time these bath rooms will be time these bith rooms will be cool and pleasant. Mr. Heulings has displayed admirable taste in the arrangement of his new place, which those who are fond of billiards or desire to have a good bath will duly appreciate. The new establish-ment will be opened for public inspection this vening at eight o'clock. TESTIMONIAL -- A number of prominent gentlemen in this city have united in tendering a complimentary testimonial to Mr. E. D. Yates, the proprietor of the West Philadelphia Skating Park, and this afternoon and evening have been hosen for the fete. A grand fancy and dress carnival will be given. There will be a magnificent display of fireworks, and a full band of music will be in attendance. This promises to be an unusually splendid affair, and we recommend at who have a taste for such things to attend.

THE DEATH OF MR. SWAIN .- A special meeting of the Press Club of Philadelphia will be held this afternoon, at four o'clock, at the rooms No. 515 Chestnut street, to take action in reference to the death of William M. Swain, Esq., an honorary member of the Association. The members of newspaper profession generally are invited to be present.

THIEF AND RECEIVER .- A colored man, named George Carter, hailing from Washington, D. C., was arrested yesterday for the larceny of a coll of rope from a vessel at Spruce street wharf. Pat. McCluskey, a junk dealer at Front and Shippen streets, was arrested for buying the rope. Both men were committed by Ald. Morrow.

LARCENY OF TOOLS.-Wm. Dewees was arrested yesterday, at Thirty-sixth street and Darby road, and was taken before Alderman Pancoast, upon the charge of the larceny of carpenter's tools from shops in the upperspart of the city. He was committed for a further bearing.

STEALING A ROBE.-Alderman Morrow this morning committed Isaac Williams, colored, Ito answer the charge of stealing a catskin robe from H.L. Price's carriage at Sixth and Walnut streets. The robe was recovered.

AN OWNER WANTED .- A bundle of washed clothes, found at Juniper and Pine street this morning, by Policeman Blee, is awaiting an owner at the Fifth District Police Station. DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN .- Mr. David Boyd, Sr., an old and well-known merchant, died at his residence in this city yesterday afternoon. The deceased had reached an advanced age. Mr. Clark's Bill. To the Editor of the Evening Bulletin :- In your comments upon the bill lately introduced into the Legislature by "Mr. John Clark, of Philadelphia," you have, unintentionally no doubt, done great injustice to that gentleman. The bill, as I happen to know, was intended solely to cure a great evil in the rural districts, and in using the term roads—a term well understood in the conntry—Colonel Clark never imagined that it could be construed so as to apply to the pared streets of the city.

During the last four weeks the drifting snows.

have ir many cases so obstructed the rouds loid ing to the city as to make them impassable, and when the Supervisors were applied to remove the obstructions, the excuse has been a want of authority or funds, and the farmers have either been compelled to open them at their own expense, or stay away from market with their produce. There is surely no impropriety in asking the city outhorities to clear the highways, which we are heavily taxed to keep up.

The difficulties that we have had to encounter during the late severe weather, would not be tolerated for a moment in the built-up portions of the city; and in the matter of roads and water and gas there is too much disposition manifested step-children treat the rural Wards as Scarcely any attention is paid to the condition of cur reads, and almost the only avenues to the city are those of private corporations, over which we have to pay tolls, whilst all the streets of the Permit me to add that the gentleman who introduced the bill in question, is Colonel John Clark, a soldier who served gallantly during the whole war,—a man of great integrity of charac-ter,—and who is as free from anything like 'railway" or other corrupt influences as any min in the Legislature or out of it. If the term "roads," as used in his b ll, is too comprehensive, Colonel Clark will undonbtedly so change its language as to make it embrace only what it was original nally designed to accomplish.

QUEEN VICTORIA AND THE PRINCE OF WALES do not appear to be on cordial terms. It has been remarked that Her Majesty has not visited the Prince, and the other day the subject was re-ferred to in the official Court Circular as follows "No authority whatever has been given for the announcement that the Queen would visit Sundringham in April. It is only so far correct that Her Majesty has for the last four years been desirous of paying a visit to the Prince of Wales at Sandringham, but no time has ever been or is now fixed upon for it."

A CHALLENGE—A PLAIN CASE.—I pay One Dollar if I fail to stop any physical pain within five minutes. I do it free of charge, and am constantly relieving thousands who have been given up as hopeless. Then why pay dollar after dollar to doctors who charge you roundly, and yet you suffer pain? I care not what alls you; all I ask, if you have pain, stop at No. 170 Chatham Square, New York, or 622 Arch street, Philadelphia, and be relieved without harm or expense. It you cannot come you can buy Wolloott's Pain Paint (a new remedy) at druggists, at 25 cents, It will do the work astonishingly quick. Now a word about something that is very asnoying, very disgusting, yet very common, and not one doctor in twenty knows anything about it. It is a disease called Catarth; one third of the people are victims; it commences in the head and ends at the lungs in consumption; the symptoms are hawking and spitting, phlegus dropping into the throat, head heavy and duil, eyes weak, throat sore, nostribs running thin macous, or inflamed, voice often changed, loss of smell, deafues or noises in the head, are plain indications. Some have all of these symptoms; others only very few of them; vet they have Catarth haddy. Just use a dollar bottle colds in the head, are plain indications. Some have all of these symptoms; others only very few of them; yet they have Catarrh badly. Just use a dollar bottle of Wolfolt's Instant Pain Arminianio for this complaint, but be careful and buy none unless in pure white outside wrappera; small, 25 cents; full bints, $1.

R. L. Wolfolt, Proprietor,
No. 170 Chatham Square, N. Y.

We advise our readers to cut this out and avail themselves of the above offer when suffering pain.
