The Committee on Foreign Affairs yesterday agreed upon the following bill as a substitute by insufficient knowledge, Gainsborough, a for the one heretofore reported by them pocified thinker not sufficiently appreciated in his own day; Romney's portraits have grace opportunity: Hogarth und Turner. This narrative of the labors of this famous agency has been prepared by the Rev. Lemuel Moss, of Lewisburg University, the Home Secretary of the Commission, and he has done his work thoroughly and well. It traces out the origin of the Christian Commission, as it crystallized into organized form from the disjointed and almost discordant, elements of Christian labor in behalf of the soldiers of the Union. The story of its early difficulties and struggles is plainly, told, and its after career of widespread benevolence and patriotism is narrated with all the enthusiasm of one who had been the story of Michael Angelo, that Titanic the care of the control of the story of Michael Angelo, that Titanic the control of the story of the control of the story of the care of the control of the story of the control of the story of the control of the with all the enthusiasm of one who had been grandeur of Michael Angelo, that Titanic an active agent in this great auxiliary to the an active agent in this great auxiliary to the Government during the years of the rebellion.

This edition has the advantage over the recent more pretentious ones of having the three parts of the Divina Commedia all in one volume, and that small and convenient for reading. Rev.
