The majority report admits that the cases of severe punishment were confined to the model, or the cases of severe punishment were confined to the most unruly boys in the College, and con-sisted of solitary confinement. Major Smith gives a full explanation of these much-talked-of "lock-ups," and states the fact that they only became occasionally offensive from the wilful misconduct of these young reprobates, while regular provision was made to avoid any such necessity. The Maryland Copperheads Rampant. [Special Despatch to the Philadelphia Evening Balletin.] WASHINGTON, February 21st.—A gentleman who arrived here this morning from Annapolis says that the Maryland Legislature is in a state of ntense excitement and indignation over the action of the Senate in refusing to admit Philip R. Thomas. Leading members mit Philip R. Thomas: Leading members of the Legislature met in secret cancus last evening, and, it is understood, resolved to elect Mr. Thomas over again, and send him a second time to the door of the Senate to present his credentials and demand admission. Some very threatening talk is indulged in by the malcontents in the Legislature, such as that in case the Senate refuses to admit Mr. Thomas, and thus deprives the State of Maryland of her. Just representation in that branch of Congress, measures should be taken by the States revenue in Maryland, until the Senate recedes from its present position.

such immense strength as the United States, would be to attack the independence of Santo Domingo, and to put the nationality in peril. "To pull down the Dominican flag," he said, "in order to plant a foreign flag in its place, is not only repuguant, but odious, and whatever may be the motives, such an act could not be regarded otherwise than as an act of treason." On the second point he contended that, as an economical question, the proposed lease was an absurdity. "You may lease a spot of land to a private individual," he said, "you may lease him anything; but a State, when it has established itself upon the land or upon the sea, considers possession equal to title. And will you say to the Uhited States, when the term of their lease shall have states, which the term of their lease shall have expired, withdraw from this place; give us back our property; we delivered it up to you a desert and a collude, and you ought to return it to us, covered though it be with towns, with popula-tion, with railroads, fortifications, and the fruits of foreign industry and commerce, in order that we might, reëstablish our Government over it ?'
